

LAN DST
RAS
SE

PRE
FAC
E

UNIVERSITY OF LIECHTENSTEIN
Institute of Architecture and Planning

Master of Science in Architecture
SUSTAINABLE URBAN
DESIGN STUDIO
Master Thesis - SS 2011

Student
Kyria Steiner BSc Arch

Professor
Peter Droege DI MAAS
MCPIA, Professor for Sustainable Development

Assistant
Anis Radzi MUrbDes BSc
BArch, Urban Design
Teacher

Thesis Committee
Florin Frick Dipl.Ing.TU &
Arch. SIA
Dr. Pia Scherrer, linguistics coaching

TABL E OF CON TEN T

Aknowledgment
Abstract

Table of content
List of abbreviations

Introduction

A. THEORY

1. Sum-up of former research work on an IBA in Liechtenstein
 1. Definition of terms
 2. Actual situation and aims for the future of Liechtenstein
 3. Effects of an IBA FL
 1. at Liechtenstein's scale
 2. at a regional scale
2. Analysis of the entire Landstrasse
 1. Historical Background
 2. Current situation
 3. Effects on the perception of Liechtenstein and its urban quality
3. Urban street
 1. Definition of terms.
 2. How does a street work or not?
 3. How is a street resilient or not?
 4. Examples of successful street designs.

B. PROJECT

1. Masterplan for the Landstrasse
 1. Emotion map
 2. At a larger scale
 3. At a closer scale
 4. The different project propositions in the studio

TABL

EO

CON

TEN

T

2. Analysis of the Landstrasse stretch Schwefel/Neugut/Aupark

1. Why was this area chosen?

1. History
2. Situation today
3. Potential

2. Strategic framework

1. Principals embedded in the Landstrasse masterplan
2. Improvements on the actual situation
3. Transportation issue

3. Design options and Landstrasse scape

1. Focus on the Hoval site, the starting point of the area
2. Focus on the entrances, as visiting cards for the district
3. Focus on a central square for community and exchange

4. Street scape options

3. Masterplan for the area

1. New Landstrasse scape

1. Street grid
2. Hydrology
3. Street scape according to the importance
 1. Primary street
 2. Secondary street
 3. Slow street

2. Technical description

1. Water management
2. Trees
3. Crossings and intersections
4. Materials

4. Design proposition

1. Diversity for a new centre

1. What composes the centre of a community?
2. Area description
3. Effect on the centres of Vaduz and Triesen

TABL

EO

CON

TEN

T

2. The inter-cultural square

1. Square design

2. Section from top to the water

C. CONCLUSION

Bibliography

List of Figures

Statutory Declaration