

Entrepreneurship

William Bygrave

Babson College

Andrew Zacharakis

Babson College

John Wiley & Sons, Inc.

CONTENTS IN BRIEF

Contents ix

Preface xiii

- 1 The Power of Entrepreneurship 1
 - 2 The Entrepreneurial Process 49
 - 3 Opportunity Recognition, Shaping, and Reshaping 83
 - 4 Understanding Your Business Model and Developing Your Strategy 125
 - 5 Entrepreneurial Marketing 165
 - 6 Building the Founding Team 201
 - 7 The Business Planning Process 239
 - 8 Building Your Pro-Forma Financial Statements 309
 - 9 Financing Entrepreneurial Ventures Worldwide 341
 - 10 Raising Money for Starting and Growing Businesses 383
 - 11 Debt and Other Forms of Financing 427
 - 12 Legal and Tax Issues 477
 - 13 Intellectual Property 519
 - 14 Entrepreneurial Growth 555
- Glossary 593
- Company Index 603
- Name Index 605
- Subject Index 607

CONTENTS

Preface xiii

Entrepreneurship and Small Business in the U.S.

- Entrepreneurial Revolution 4
- Web: Three Revolutions Converge 9
- Development of the Web 9
- Entrepreneurship Revolution Strikes Gold 10
- Causes of the Entrepreneurial Revolution 12
 - Changes in the Entrepreneurial Framework Conditions 14
 - Churning and Economic Growth 18
- Global Entrepreneurship Monitor 20
- Principal Findings from GEM 21
 - Age 23
 - Gender 24
 - Education 25
 - Financing 25
 - Job Creation 26
- Twenty-First Century Economies: Anglo-Saxon or Social Models? 27
 - Conclusion 28
 - Your Opportunity Journal 29
 - Web Exercise 30
 - Notes 30
 - CASE: MALINCHO 36
- Critical Factors for Starting a New Enterprise 50
 - Personal Attributes 52
 - Environmental Factors 52
 - Other Sociological Factors 54
- Evaluating Opportunities for New Businesses 56
 - The Opportunity 57
 - The Customer 58
 - The Timing 58
 - The Entrepreneur and the Management Team 59
 - Resources 60
- Determining Resource Needs and Acquiring Resources 61
 - Startup Capital 63
- Profit Potential 65
- Ingredients for a Successful New Business 66
 - Conclusion 68
 - Your Opportunity Journal 69
 - Notes 69
 - CASE: ALISON BARNARD 71

From Glimmer to Action: How Do I Come Up with a Good Idea? 84

- Finding Your Passion 84
- Idea Multiplication 85
- Is Your Idea an Opportunity? 89
 - The Customer 89
 - The Competition 100
 - Suppliers and Vendors 103
 - The Government 104
 - The Global Environment 104
- The Opportunity Checklist 104
- "I Don't Have an Opportunity" 104
 - Conclusion 106
 - Your Opportunity Journal 107
 - Web Exercise 108
 - Notes 108
 - CASE: JIM POSS 110

Our Business Model Strategy 125

- The Business Model 126
 - The Revenue Model 126
 - The Cost Model 127
- The First-Mover Myth 129
- Formulating a Winning Strategy 132
 - The People Are What Matters 132
 - Entry Strategy 134
 - Growth Strategy 137
 - Conclusion 144
 - Your Opportunity Journal 145
 - Web Exercise 145
 - Notes 145
 - CASE: ADAM AIRCRAFT 148
- Why Marketing Is Critical for Entrepreneurs 166
 - Entrepreneurs Face Unique Marketing Challenges 166
 - Acquiring Market Information 167
 - Marketing Strategy for Entrepreneurs 168
 - Segmentation, Targeting, and Positioning 169
 - The Marketing Mix 170
 - Guerrilla Marketing 182
 - Marketing Skills for Managing Growth 183
 - Understanding and Listening to the Customer 183