

the Franchising Handbook

The complete Guide to Choosing a Franchise

Iain Murray

HOCHSCHULE
LIECHTENSTEIN
Bibliothek

KOGAN
PAGE

London and Philadelphia

Contents

	Introduction	1
1	Nothing succeeds like franchising success	6
2	The ins and outs, the pros and cons The different types of franchise 27; The pros and cons 31	20
3	Any questions? A self-analysis summary 56	48
4	Searching for the perfect partner - Other sources of information 65; Can you afford the franchise of your choice and what do you get for your money? 65; Do I have what it takes? 69	58
5	Don't shoot the wrong beast Take a closer look at what catches your eye 75; Checklist 82	73
6	Getting closer and getting help Better than guesswork 93; The experts 94; The most common snares and pitfalls 99	85
7	Signing on the dotted line) Termination of the contract 107; Things that you - or better still, your lawyer - should look out for in a franchise agreement 110'	100
8	Winning over the bank The borrower, otherwise known as you 115; The amount you want, or need, to borrow 115; The nature of the	112

x Contents

business^N116; The nature of the loan 116; Repaying the loan 117; Security 117; The business plan 118; The interview 123; Dance of the seven veils - or what your bank manager will want you modestly to reveal 126

9 Ladies (or should I say women) first 127
Some useful websites for networking women in business 136

10 A little marriage guidance 137

Appendix - . -150
Index 107
Index-of advertisers 211