

Strategic Reputation Management

Towards a company of good

Pekka Aula and Saku Mantere

•*

Contents

List of figures and tables	a
e	jq

PART*

The company of good* a contradiction in terms?	1
---	----------

1 The question «Concurrence» in the good company: a good question	3
Strategic reputation management: bringing good, doing good, looking good	9
Old-fashioned strategic management: a psychological organization	10
Antonym in the school: towards a good corporate life	M
Key concepts for this book	14
Part for the book	17

PART II

Strategic reputation management	19
--	-----------

2 The reputation of the good company	21
Who and how to define reputation?	11
Reputation as past, present, and future	24
The genesis of reputation management	25
Evaluating reputation	29
Summary; the reputation of a company?	40
3 Is reputation capital or information?	41
Reputation as capital	H
Reputation as interpretation	49
The core: sufficiently uniform identity	St

vi Contents

- 4 The arena model of organizational reputation
Arenas within markets of meaning 62
Summary: three implications of the arena model of reputation 77
- 5 Reputational arenas within markets of meaning
four arenas 82
Eight reputation strategies 91
- Defense* 95
Offense 91
Riot 101
The right strategy at the right time 109
Network strategies 118
Strategy: towards the management of a company of good 129

PART III

Managing the company of good 131

- 6 Doing good deed? 133
Instrumental goodness or intrinsic goodness? 136
The company as a good citizen 137
Strategy-as-Zeugnis: instrumental value 139
Strategic reputation management of the good company 143
Strategy as communication: towards strategic management of the good 149
Summary: strategic management of the good 160
- 7 Communicating the good
To manage is to communicate 165
Reputational communication; from communication to communication 165
Organization based on human communication 173
Reputation management as communication 173
Summary: communication of the good 176
- 6 Managing good relationships
Good companies in networks 180
Foundations for good relations 190

PART IV*Conclusion*205

The company of flood

209

This Strategic reputation management is the company of good 210

The good company is not a fad 211

For the good audience 213

Notes

215

References

217

Index

223