

Alison & Peter Smithson
A Critical Anthology

Edited by Ma* Risselada

Simon Smithson	Foreword: On Editing and Pruning	14
Max Risselada	Introduction	18
M. Christine Boyer	Why Do Architects Write? The Case of Team 10 and Alison & Peter Smithson	36
Richard Padovan	Seven Small Thoughts On The Architects' Writings	66
Philip Johnson	School at Hunstanton	80
Christoph Grafe	Finite Orders and the Art of Everyday Inhabitation	98
Reyner Banham	The New Brutalism	112
Ben Highmore	Rough Poetry Patio and Pavilion Revisited	124
Dirk van den Heuvel	'Picking up, Turning over and Putting with...'	150
Kenneth Frampton	The Economist and the Hauptstadt	174
Irene Scalbert	'Architecture Is Not Made With The Brain'	isa
Peter Eisenman	From Golden Lane to Robin Hood Gardens. Or If You Follow the Yellow Brick Road, It May not Lead to Golders Green	206
Alan Powers	Robin Hood Gardens <sup>1</sup> A Critical Narrative	228
Robin Middleton	The Pursuit of Ordinarity: Garden Building Oxford	246
Christopher Woodward	Drawing the Smithsons: An Artisanal Memoir	258
Cees Boekraad	The Way Back	268
Peter Cook	Regarding the Smithsons	290
David Dunster	Foreword: The Shift	308
David Turnbull	Scholars of Architecture	312
Peter Salter	Strategy and Detail	324
Marco Vidotto	Introduction to the Smithsons Exhibition Catalogue	334
Enric Miralles	On the Trundling Turk	340
Max Risselada	The Space Between	346
Beatriz Colomina	Couplings	354
Maddalena Scimemi	An Open Work by the Smithsons at Bad Karlshafen	368
Karl Unglaub	Material Reconstructed	384
Louisa Hutton	The Ten Chairs of Lauenforde	392
Jonathan Sergison and Stephen Bates	Lessons Learnt from Alison and Peter Smithson	400
Mark Wigley	Alison and Peter Smithson —The Architects of The Void	410
	A Critical Chronology	424
	Writers' Biographies	442
	Bibliography	448