

FAMILY BUSINESSES THE ESSENTIALS

PETER LEACH

Foreword by Roger Pedder

PROFILE BOOKS

Contents

Foreword by Roger Pedder / xii

Preface / xiv

Acknowledgements / xxiii

1	Why family businesses are special	1
	Definitions / 2
	Economic impact / 2
	Special strengths / 4
	Family business culture and values / 4
	Predictable problem resolution / 5
	Commitment / 6
	Knowledge / 6
	Flexibility in work, time and money / 6
	Long-range thinking / 7
	A stable culture / 8
	Speedy decisions / 9
	Reliability and pride / 10
	Dilemmas and challenges for family businesses / 11
	Resistance to change / 11
	Business challenges / 12
	Succession / 13
	Emotional issues / 14
	Leadership / 15
	A competitive edge and outperformance? / 15
	Successful sectors for family businesses / 16
2	Family business dynamics: people, systems and growing complexity	19
	Family business people / 19
	Founders / 19
	Women in family businesses / 23
	Husband and wife teams / 24
	In-laws / 25
	Multifamily ownership / 27

- Non-family employees / 29*
- Managing conflict in family firms / 29*
- Family business systems / 38
 - Seeking a balanced approach / 39*
 - Introducing the ownership dimension / 41*
- Family business life cycles: a story of growing complexity / 44
 - Life-cycle stages / 44*
 - Ownership transitions / 47*

- 3 The family's relationship with the business: developing a strategic vision and building teamwork 50
 - Articulating values and a shared vision / 50
 - Effective business families / 54
 - Ingredients of successful planning / 56
 - Establishing open communication / 56*
 - Creative versus destructive conflict / 58*
 - Building family teamwork / 60*
 - Unifying plans, processes and structures / 62
 - Designing family governance / 64*
 - Family council / 64*
 - Family retreats / 67*
 - Family constitution / 67*
 - Conclusions / 70

- 4 The next generation: human resource management and leadership perspectives 72
 - To join or not to join? / 72
 - The importance of outside experience / 76
 - Self-esteem and confidence / 76*
 - Wider business experience / 76*
 - Credibility with non-family employees / 77*
 - Systems overlap and human resource management issues / 78
 - Recruitment / 79*
 - Training and development / 82*
 - Remuneration / 83*
 - Performance appraisal and promotion / 85*
 - Working in the business / 86
 - Seek out a mentor / 87*
 - Gain the respect of employees / 87*
 - Tread carefully / 88*
 - Beware sibling rivalry / 88*
 - Work at establishing personal identity / 89*
 - Relationship with the senior generation / 89*

5	Getting help: making the most of outside resources	91
	Non-family managers / 91
	Relationships with the family / 92
	Introducing external executives / 94
	Motivation and rewards / 96
	Incentive design and delivery / 97
	Non-executive directors / 100
	Selecting the right candidate / 101
	Board practices / 103
	Professional advisers and consultants / 104
	Are your advisers keeping pace with your needs? / 104
	Consultants / 104
	Family business consultants / 105
	Beware conflicts of interest / 107
	Relationships underpinning an advisory role / 108
6	Professionalising the boardroom: the role of a balanced board of directors	109
	The rubber-stamp board / 109
	Making the transition / 110
	Establishing a well-balanced board / 112
	Board composition / 112
	Organising the board / 115
	Effective, working boards / 115
	Relationship with the family / 117
	Two-tier boards / 119
7	Cousin companies: family governance in multigenerational family firms	121
	Introduction / 121
	Evolution of family business ownership / 124
	Culture shock / 126
	Complexity in cousin companies / 126
	Family complexity / 127
	Ownership complexity / 127
	Responding to growing complexity / 129
	Ownership policies / 130
	Business policies / 132
	Family policies / 133
	Setting up a family governance process / 133
	Recording decisions – the family constitution / 134
	Structuring family governance / 135
	Family council / 137

	Other governance entities / 139
	Roles and membership / 143
	Getting the structure working / 144
	Conclusions /145
8	Managing succession: the leadership challenge	146
	The succession paradox / 147
	Resistance to succession planning / 149
	The founder / 151
	The family / 152
	Employee and environmental factors / 152
	Leading the transition / 153
	Start planning early / 154
	Encourage intergenerational teamwork / 155
	Develop a written plan / 157
	Involve everyone and obtain outside help / 158
	Establish a training process / 159
	Plan for retirement / 159
	Decide when to retire and stick to it / 159
	Selecting the right successor / 161
	Who to choose? / 162
	What if no one fits the bill? / 164
	Some conclusions on selecting a successor / 166
	Preparing next-generation managers and leaders / 167
	In-house training and development / 168
	The next generation's perspective / 169
	Succession in older family businesses / 170
	Second to third generation / 170
	Third to fourth generation and beyond / 171
	New generation, new system, new culture / 172
9	Building financial security and relinquishing control	175
	Building financial security / 176
	Money into or out of the business? / 177
	Selling the business / 178
	A hard decision / 178
	Sale mechanics / 179
	Principal exit options / 180
	Passing down the business / 182
	Capturing values for later generations / 183
	Estate-planning principles / 185
	Treating heirs fairly / 185
	Ownership and control considerations / 187
	Life insurance / 188

	Splitting the company / 188
	Conditions attaching to ownership / 188
	Isolating voting control / 189
	Implementing the estate plan / 191
	Trusts and their uses / 191
	The benefits of life insurance / 195
	Conclusions on estate planning / 195
10	Wealth management: family offices and philanthropy	196
	The family office / 196
	Roles / 196
	Structures / 197
	Evaluating MFOs / 200
	Family business philanthropy / 200
	Organising giving / 202
11	Summary	204
	Notes / 216
	Index / 225	