

KANNON

Divine Compassion

Early Buddhist Art from Japan

Editorial Director: Katharina Epprecht

UNIVERSITÄT
LIECHTENSTEIN

Museum Rietberg Zurich

Contents

6	Lenders
7	Greetings of the Mayor of Zurich
9	Greetings of the Director of the Nara National Museum
11	Greetings of the Sponsors
13	"Perceiver of the World's Sounds ..." Katharina Epprecht
21	The Path of Kannon's Compassion and Appearance in Early Japan Michael Cunningham
35	Compassion in the Christian and Buddhist Traditions Maria Reis-Habito
47	The Roots of the Wisdom of Avalokiteshvara: the Hearing of Profound Awareness Hermann-Josef Rollicke
59	Between Six and Thirty-three: Manifestations of Kannon in Japan Sherry Fowler
81	Hasedera and the Worship of the Eleven-headed Kannon Kajitani Ryoji
89	Construction of Buddhist Sculpture: Wood-Carving Methods Washizuka Hiromitsu
98	Catalogue Entries by: Helmut Brinker Sherry Fowler Inamoto Yasuo Iwata Shigeki Kajitani Ryoji Kitazawa Natsuki Miyeko Murase Nakashima Hiroshi Hiroshi Sugimoto Suzuki Yoshihiro Taniguchi Kosei
194	Selected Bibliography in Western Languages