
Giulia Mennillo
Thomas Schlenzig
Elmar Friedrich
Editors

Balanced Growth

Finding Strategies for Sustainable Development

 Springer

Table of Contents

Preface by the Editors	V
Foreword by Prof. Dr. Müller-Stewens	VII
Introductory remarks to the economics perspective on balanced growth .	IX
by Prof. Dr. Carl Christian von Weizsäcker
Part A: Balanced Growth – the economics perspective
Growth imperative and money creation – a new outlook on growth dynamics . . .	3
Hans Christoph Binswanger
Beyond balanced growth: The effect of human capital on economic growth reconsidered	11
Uwe Sunde and Thomas Vischer
Global imbalances and long-term interest rates	23
Daniel Kienzler
Development and capital flow mysteries	43
Thomas Davoine
Sustainable development of housing finance markets – An international perspective after the crisis	57
Friedemann Roy
Part B: Balanced Growth – a business perspective
Selecting the right growth mechanism: The choice between internal development, strategic alliances, and mergers & acquisitions	77
Markus Kreutzer
Challenges and success factors for sustainable growth: Experience from strategy consulting	95
Jens Schädler and Melanie Oschlies

How sustainable are the growth strategies of sustainability entrepreneurs? . . . 105
Liudmila Nazarkina

Boards' contribution to organizational growth:
 Effectiveness as a critical success factor 123
Michèle F. Rüdisser

Part C: Balanced Growth – a resource management perspective

HR strategies for balanced growth 137
David J. G. Dwertmann and Justus Julius Kunz

Electricity storage: Making large-scale adoption of wind and solar energies a reality 163
Cornelius Pieper and Holger Rubel

Balanced growth through local entrepreneurship:
 The Komba coffee project in southern Tanzania 183
Felix Meissner and Xaver Kazimoto Komba

Editors 195

List of Authors 197