

The Complete Guide to Mentoring How to design, implement and evaluate effective mentoring

HILARIE OWEN

KoganPage

LONDON PHILADELPHIA NEW DELHI

Contents

Foreword by Dr David Clutterbuck viii

Acknowledgements x

- 01 Introduction to mentoring I
- Why is mentoring needed today? 1
 - What is mentoring? 8
 - Reflective actions 16
- 02 Mentoring in organizations 19
- Is your organization ready for a mentoring process? 19
 - How adults learn 25
 - Reflective actions 31
- 03 Finding the right people 33
- Identifying mentors 33
 - Finding the mentors 35
 - Reflective actions 39
 - Finding the right mentees 40
 - Reflective action for sourcing mentees 45
- 04 The nuts and bolts of a mentoring scheme 47
- How the scheme will work 48
 - Administering the scheme 48
 - EMCC code of conduct 51
 - Direction and objectives 52
 - A learning process through reflection 54
 - Reflective learning 54
 - The third person in the mentoring relationship 55
 - The matching process 60
 - Getting a clear agreement 61
 - Pitfalls 64

Contents

- Example of an agreement 65
- Reflective actions 68

- 05 The role of mentoring in diversity and culture 69
 - Diversity 69
 - Gender 73
 - Reflective actions 84

- 06 Evaluating mentoring 85
 - The terminology 85
 - The evaluation plan 86
 - Why evaluate? 89
 - The logic model 91
 - Reflective and action notes 96

- 07 The wisdom of mentoring 97
 - Understanding wisdom 98
 - Can we all be wise? 101
 - Believing in your wisdom 102
 - Why change is so difficult 103
 - Addressing the gap 105
 - Reflective action 105

- 08 Mentoring for small and medium enterprises 107
 - Finding your mentor 116
 - Words of wisdom 116
 - Reflective action 119

- 09 Mentoring for leadership 121
 - The challenge 121
 - Enabling effective mentoring for leadership development 123
 - Unlearning implicit leadership theories 124
 - Attachment security and leadership mentoring 125
 - Mentoring and leadership self-efficacy 126
 - Reflective action 129

10	Conclusion	131
	The big picture	133
	Reflective action	134
	References	135
	Appendix: Learning styles	139
	Index	147