

BECOMING A MASTER MANAGER

A COMPETING VALUES APPROACH

FIFTH EDITION

Robert E. Quinn

University of Michigan

Sue R. Faerman

State University of New York at Albany

Michael P. Thompson

Brigham Young University

Michael R. McGrath

Executive Education—University of Michigan Graduate School of Business

Lynda S. St. Clair

Bryant University

WILEY
John Wiley & Sons, Inc.

BRIEF CONTENTS

PREFACE

INTRODUCTION	The Competing Values Approach to Management
	The Evolution of Management Models	2
	The Competing Values Framework	12
	Organizing the Learning Process—ALAPA	22
	Core Competency: Thinking Critically	23
MODULE 1	Creating and Sustaining Commitment and Cohesion	35
	Understanding Self and Others	37
	Communicating Honestly and Effectively	47
	Mentoring and Developing Others	58
	Managing Groups and Leading Teams	70
	Managing and Encouraging Constructive Conflict	86
MODULE 2	Establishing and Maintaining Stability and Continuity	108
	Organizing Information Flows	109
	Working and Managing Across Functions	120
	Planning and Coordinating Projects	129
	Measuring and Monitoring Performance and Quality	146
	Encouraging and Enabling Compliance	156
MODULE 3	Improving Productivity and Increasing Profitability	178
	Developing and Communicating a Vision	179
	Setting Goals and Objectives	191
	Motivating Self and Others	203
	Designing and Organizing	220
	Managing Execution and Driving for Results	236
MODULE 4	Promoting Change and Encouraging Adaptability	254
	Using Power and Influence Ethically and Effectively	255
	Championing and Selling New Ideas	269
	Fueling and Fostering Innovation	286

	Negotiating Agreement and Commitment		298
	Implementing and Sustaining Change	-	310
CONCLUSION	Integration and the Road to Mastery		329
INDEX			351