

Robin Cohen
& Paul Kennedy

With
Maud Perrier

Global Sociology

Third Edition

palgrave
macmillan

Brief contents

	Introduction	1
PART 1	Interpretations	13
	1 The making of global sociology	15
	2 Thinking globally	31
	3 Modernity and the evolution of world society	49
	4 Work, production and finance	67
	5 Political sociology: changing nation-states	85
PART 2	Divisions and inequalities	103
	6 Global inequalities: debates and case studies	105
	7 Class, income and wealth	123
	8 Gender and sexualities	142
	9 Race, ethnicity and intersectionality	159
	10 Corporate power and social responsibility	176
	11 Crime, terrorism and violence	192
PART 3	Experiences	211
	12 Population and migration	213
	13 Globalization, families and social change	231
	14 Consuming culture	249
	15 Lifestyle and leisure	266
	16 Media and the digital age	285
	17 Global religion	301
	18 Urban life	318
PART 4	Dynamics and challenges	335
	19 Global civil society and political activism	337
	20 Towards a safe global environment	354
	21 Identities and belonging	373
	22 Conclusion: global uncertainties and ways forward	390