

Leading Apple with Steve Jobs

Management Lessons from a
Controversial Genius

JAY ELLIOT

WILEY

John Wiley & Sons, Inc.

Contents

| | |
|--|-------------|
| Preface Why I Wrote This Book | ix |
| Chronology | xiii |
| 1 A Ding in the Universe: Everything Starts with an Inspiring Vision | 1 |
| 2 Steve's Business Philosophy and Values | 15 |
| 3 People Who Know More than You: Choosing and Leading Your Lieutenants | 29 |
| 4 Steve's Secrets for Selecting Great People | 41 |
| 5 Unusual Interviewing Techniques | 53 |
| 6 To Protect Innovation, Create a Company within a Company | 61 |
| 7 "No More Crap Products": Creating Excellence | 73 |
| 8 More on Product Strategy: Design Is How It Works | 85 |
| 9 Entrepreneurial Confidence and High Standards | 93 |
| 10 Employee Owners: Rewarding the Product Stakeholders | 99 |
| 11 The Apple Workplace: Fostering Creativity | 107 |
| 12 When Selling Becomes More Important than the Product | 121 |
| 13 "And One More Thing": Looking into the Distance | 139 |
| 14 Flowers at His Doorstep: The Heritage of Steve Jobs | 149 |
| Notes | 161 |
| Acknowledgments | 165 |
| Index | 167 |