

The Landscape of Family Business

Edited by

Ritch L. Sorenson

University of St. Thomas, USA

Andy Yu

University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, USA

Keith H. Brigham

Texas Tech University, USA

G.T. Lumpkin

Syracuse University, USA

Edward Elgar

Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA

Contents

List of figures	x
List of tables	xi
List of contributors	xii
Foreword	xvii
Harry G. (Paddy) McNeely, III
Acknowledgements	xix
Introduction: The landscape of family business	1
Ritch L. Sorenson, Andy Yu, Keith H. Brigham and G. T. Lumpkin
1 Understanding the landscape of family business	9
Andy Yu
2 Owning family governance within the two dimensions of the family business	37
Ritch L. Sorenson
3 Performance in family business: Financial and socio-emotional outcomes	64
Mary Schmid Daugherty
4 Social and economic impact of family business	78
Keith H. Brigham
5 Strategy in family business: Recent findings and future challenges	93
G. T. Lumpkin and Gregory G. Dess
6 Family business roles	113
Pramodita Sharma and Frank Hoy
1 Family dynamics in the family business	143
Kirby Rosplock
8 Succession in family firms	167
Massimo Bau, Karin Hellerstedt, Mattias Nordqvist and Karl Wennberg
9 A second look and commentary on the landscape of family business	198
Franz W. Kellermanns and Laura J. Stanley
Appendix A: The McNeely Landscape Map	210
Appendix B: Empirical studies from which the outcome variables were derived for the Yu, Lumpkin, Sorenson and Brigham (2012) paper	211
Appendix C: List of participants at the 2010 University of Saint Thomas Landscape of Family Business Conference	225
Index	227