

Clemens Steenbergen | Wouter Reh

METROPOLITAN LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE
URBAN PARKS AND LANDSCAPES

THOTH Publishers Bussum

Contents

Acknowledgements – 6

Foreword – 8

LANDSCAPE AND THE CITY – 14

The landscape architectonic exploration of the city – 15 /

The classic city and the landscape – 17 /

The modern city and the landscape – 20 /

Analysis and design experimentation – 23

1 STAGING URBAN SPACE AS LANDSCAPE – 25

HORTI FARNESIANI, ROME 1556 – 27

An urban balcony – 28 / The Seven Hills – 32 / A keystone in the villa landscape – 36 / The genius loci of the Palatine – 42 /

The rise and decline of the Horti – 48 / A manneristic diorama – 52

The integrazione scenica of time and space – 60

JARDIN DES TUILERIES, PARIS 1664 – 65

The spatial axis – 66 / The Paris Basin and the Seine – 70 /

The residential landscape and the city – 74 / The Jardin des

Tuileries – 80 / The urban transformation of the spatial axis – 86 /

The representation of the horizon – 94

REGENT'S PARK, LONDON 1811 – 105

The landscape scenography of the city – 106 / The landscape of the Thames – 110 / The urban transformation of country life – 114 /

The integration of the landscape into the urban pattern – 116 /

The Grand Design – 120 / Regent's Park – 124 /

New Street – 134 / The capstone on the Thames – 138 /

The continuity of city and landscape – 140

THE GARTENREICH OF POTSDAM, BERLIN 1826 – 145

The landscape theatre – 146 / The post-glacial landscape – 150 /

The system of axes and avenues – 154 Charlottenhof as a transformation model – 158 / The great water theatre – 164 /

The Gartenreich of Potsdam – 172 / The limits of the garden realm – 178

2 THE LANDSCAPE IN THE URBAN NETWORK - 183

CENTRAL PARK, NEW YORK 1857 - 185

Nature in the urban grid - 186 / A rocky peninsula - 190 /
Birkenhead Park as model - 194 / The growth of the urban grid - 196 / The public planning process - 202 /
The pastoral landscape as guide - 210 / The perfection of the park as urban spatial type - 222

EIXAMPLE, BARCELONA 1859 - 231

The topographic grid - 232 / Coastal plain and river delta - 234 /
The topographic map as plan drawing - 238 / The urban building kit - 242 / The interplay between grid and topography - 246 /
The landscape architecture of the urban grid - 252

VONDELPARK, AMSTERDAM 1865 - 257

The agricultural landscape as an urban pattern - 258 /
The polder landscape - 262 / The urban transformation of the peat polder - 266 / Three phases of the 'free extension' into the peat polder - 270 / The omphalos of the peat polder city - 274 /
The modulation of the peat parcel - 278 / The polder park - 284

EMERALD NECKLACE, BOSTON 1876 - 289

The landscape as urban framework - 290 / The estuary of the Charles River - 294 / Boston Common as the starting point - 298 /
A municipal or a metropolitan park system? - 302 /
The water chain - 306 / The parks in the hills - 314 /
The tail piece on the ocean, and the parkway - 318 /
The first urban park system - 322

3 LANDSCAPE FORM AND URBAN PROGRAMME - 327

STADTPARK, HAMBURG 1902 - 329

Monumentalising the practical landscape - 330 / The Elbe in the North German Plain - 334 / Toward a functional design for urban space - 338 / The debate over functional form - 342 /
An urban recreational landscape - 346 / The Volkspark - 350

THE NIDDA VALLEY, FRANKFURT 1925 - 355

A productive urban paradise - 356 / Rhine, Main and Nidda - 360 / Folding the edge of the city inward - 364 / The Siedlung as an architectonic settlement form - 372 / The settlement park - 376

THE GRÜNGÜRTEL, COLOGNE 1925 - 381

Green structure as an artificial landscape form - 382 / The Lower
Rhine 384 / The first green belt as a boulevard - 388 /
The second green belt and the spatial articulation of the city - 392 /
The third green belt and the functional zoning of the green - 396 /
A green matrix - 400 / The park form dissolves - 402 / Urban green space as a generic landscape - 408

METROPOLITAN LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE - 412

The landscape architectonic conquest of the city - 413 /
Keys to the design of metropolitan landscape - 422 /
Landscape architecture for the metropolis - 428

Indexes (Concepts, Places and Persons) - 432

Literature and Digital Sources - 442

Map and Digital Geographic Data - 444

About the Authors - 446