

PRIVATE FOUNDATIONS

Law and Practice

PAOLO PANICO

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

CONTENTS

Table of Cases	xi
Table of Legislation	xv
List of Abbreviations	xxxiii

/1. Introduction: The World of Private Foundations

Introduction	1.01
Foundations and the Birth of 'Legal Personality'	1.08
The Making of Private Foundations	1.15
Liechtenstein and other civil law private foundations	1.18
Common law private foundations legislation	1.28
Translation and terminology issues	-*1.32
Migration and Transformation of Foundations	1.42
Migration and continuation of private foundations	1.44
Transformation and conversion of foundations	1.53
Arrangement of Matters and Possible Reading Paths	1.59

2. The Founder

Introduction	2.01
The Founders of Liechtenstein and Austrian Foundations	2.12
Who can be a founder?	2.20
Founders powers before a foundation has come into existence	2.38
Founder's powers after a foundation has come into existence	2.63
Transfer of the founders rights	2.103
Founder's Powers and Foundation Recognition in German Case Law	2.167
Founder's Powers in Other Civil Law Jurisdictions	2.173
The legal position as founder	2.177
Powers to interfere with the structure of the foundation	2.196
Powers to influence the administration and appointment of assets	2.209
The Founders of Common Law Private Foundations	2.225
The legal position of founders in common law jurisdictions	2.229
Powers of revocation and amendment	2.282
Powers to influence the administration and appointment of the foundation assets	2.304
Assignment and transfer of the founder's rights and powers	2.330

3. Foundation Council and Management Bodies

Introduction	3.01
The Foundation Council in Civil Law Jurisdictions	3.12
The management bodies of Liechtenstein and Austrian foundations	3-20
Powers and duties of management bodies	3-50
The administration of foundations in other civil law jurisdictions	3.119
The Foundation Council in Common Law Private Foundations	3.160
Representation and general management powers	3.167
Appointment and membership	3.184
Duties and liability of the foundation council members	3-265
Court jurisdiction and powers	3.344

4. The Beneficiaries and Their Right to Information

Introduction	4.01
The Beneficiaries of Civil Law Foundations	4.06
The beneficiaries of Liechtenstein foundations	4.07
The beneficiaries of Austrian foundations	4.31
Other civil law developments: Panama, the Netherlands, Luxembourg, Malta	4.43
The Beneficiaries of Common Law Foundations	4.80
Beneficial interests under common law foundations	4.84
Disclaimer and forfeiture of benefits under common law foundations	4.108
Beneficiaries' Rights to Information and Other Enforcement
Mechanisms	4.126
Beneficiaries' Rights to Information under Liechtenstein and Austrian Law	4.135
Liechtenstein before and after the 'total revision'	4.136
The beneficiaries' entitlement to information under Austrian law	4.183
Other Civil Law Experiences: Panama and Malta	4.191
Disclosure duties under Panamanian law	4.193
The beneficiaries of Maltese foundations and trusts	4.199
Beneficiaries' Rights to Information under Common Law Private Foundations	4.214
Disclosure subject to the terms of the articles and by-laws'	4.217
Default rights and 'enfranchised beneficiaries'	4.226
The 'Londonderry principle' in common law private foundations	4.247
Statutory enforcement mechanisms for common law foundations	4.253
Beneficiaries under Trusts and Foundations: Some Concluding Remarks	4.260

5. Protectors and Other Supervisory Bodies

Introduction	5.01
--------------	------

Contents

Supervisory Bodies and Auditors in Civil Law-Private Foundations	5.07
'Additional bodies': publicity under the foundation documents	5-10
Powers and duties of the supervisory bodies of civil law foundations	5.18
The supervisory board of Luxembourg foundations	5.50
Independence requirements and incompatibility rules	5.58
Auditors in civil law private foundations	5.76
Protectors and supervisory councils of Maltese foundations	5.87
Guardians, Protectors, and Enforcers of Common Law
Private Foundations	5.93
Appointment and publicity under the foundation documents	5.96
Powers, duties, and liability of guardians, protectors and enforcers	5.121
Incompatibility rules in common law private foundations	5-190
Auditors in common law private foundations	5.199
6. Forced Heirship and Asset Protection
Introduction	6.01
Foundations as Legal Persons 'Owning their Assets'	6.11
'Special purpose funds' in civil law jurisdictions	6.12
'Separate and independent entities' in common law jurisdictions	6.23
Forced Heirship, Conflict of Laws and Private Foundations	6.35
Private foundations and forced heirship in civil law jurisdictions	6.38
'Firewall legislation' in common law jurisdictions	6.61
Creditors' Rights and Asset Protection Foundations'	6.107
Creditor protection in civil law private foundation jurisdictions	6.111
'Asset protection foundations' in common law jurisdictions	6.147
'Protective' and 'Spendthrift Foundations'	6.232
'Protective foundations' in civil law jurisdictions	6.237
Restrictions against alienation under common law foundations	6.244
7. Private Purpose Foundations
Introduction	7.01
The 'Beneficiary Requirement' in Classic Foundation Jurisdictions	7.09
The 'beneficiary principle' and the 'enforceability principle' in trusts law	7.10
The 'beneficiary requirement' in Liechtenstein and Austria	7.16
Alternative Civil Law Approaches: Panama, The Netherlands, Malta	7.35
'Private foundations' and 'purpose foundations' in Malta	7.37
Private Purpose Foundations in Common Law Legislation	7.47
Private Purposes and Corporate Arrangements:
Concluding Remarks	7.61
Index	359