

LIVING OVER THE STORE

Architecture and Local Urban Life

Howard Davis

CONTENTS

Preface	vi
Introduction	1
A quintessential urban building
Part I: THE SHOP/HOUSE AS A GLOBAL PHENOMENON	11
1 Shophouses of Asia	15
2 The shop in the palazzo	33
3 Merchants' houses of northern and western Europe	49
4 From London to Main Street	67
Part II: THE FABRIC OF EVERYDAY LIFE	85
5 Living and working in the city	89
6 The geography of mixed uses	99
7 Adaptable buildings and flexible economics	115
8 The architecture of hybrid types	141
Part III: THE DEATH AND LIFE OF THE MODEST
SHOP/HOUSE	171
9 The gradual separation of family and business	175
10 The building culture of the divided city	189
11 Toward a resilient urbanism	203
Conclusion	22g
Hybrid urban practice
Bibliography	233
Index	251
Plates	between pp. 120-121