

ID
PRIMERS

Existential and Embodied Wisdom in Architecture
JUHANI
PALLASMAA

©WILEY

A John Wiley and Sons, Ltd, Publication

Contents

Introduction: Embodied Existence and Sensory Thought	010
Chapter One: The Mysterious Hand	024
The Multiple Essences of the Hand
What is the Hand?
Hand, Eye, Brain and Language
Hand as Symbol
Gestures of the Hand
Languages of the Hand
Chapter Two: The Working Hand	046
The Hand and the Tool
The Hand of the Craftsman
Collaborative Craftsmanship
Architecture as Workmanship
Chapter Three: Eye-Hand-Mind Fusion	070
Experimentation and the Art of Play
Skill and Boredom
Eye, Hand and Mind

Chapter Four: The Drawing Hand	088
Drawing and the Self
Tactility of Drawing
The Computerised Hand
Primacy of Touch: Hapticity of Self-image
Unconscious Touch in Artistic Experience
Chapter Five: Embodied Thinking	106
Creative Fusion
The Work of Thinking: The Value of Uncertainty
Resistance, Tradition and Freedom
Thinking Through the Senses
Embodied Memory and Thought
Existential Knowledge
Chapter Six: Body, Self and Mind	122
The Body as Site
The World and the Self
The World and the Mind
Existential Space in Art

Chapter Seven: Emotion and Imagination	130
Reality of Imagination
The Gift of Imagination
Reality of Art
Art and Emotion
Artistic Experience as Exchange
Chapter Eight: Theory and Life	140
Theory and Making
Opposition of Theory and Making
Architecture as Image of Life
The Task of Art
Index	153
Photo credits	159