

Entrepreneurship in Theory and Practice

PARADOXES IN PLAY

SECOND EDITION

Suna Lowe Nielsen, Kim Klyver, Majbritt Rostgaard Evald and Torben Bager

University of Southern Denmark

Case writers:

William B. Gartner, Saras Sarasvathy, Alain Fayolle, Benson Honig et al

UNIVERSE,
LIECHTENSTEIN

Bibliothek

L¹ L¹ Edward Elgar
PUBLISHING

Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA

Contents in brief

Preface xiv

Introduction xvii

SECTION 1: WELCOME TO ENTREPRENEURSHIP

1 What is entrepreneurship? 3

2 Who is the entrepreneur? 21

SECTION 2: THE ENTREPRENEURIAL PROCESS

3 Emergence of opportunities 47

4 Evaluation of opportunities 67

5 Organisation of opportunities 89

6 Nascent entrepreneurship 113

SECTION 3: THE ENTREPRENEURIAL CONTENT

7 Resources 137

8 Networks 157

9 The business plan 179

10 Design thinking 201

SECTION 4: THE ENTREPRENEURIAL CONTEXT

11 Intrapreneurship 227

12 Social entrepreneurship 252

13 Public entrepreneurship 269

14 Entrepreneurship policy 294

15 Synthesis and recap 316

Index 325

Full contents

Preface	xiv
Introduction: the ideas behind the book	xvii
The audience	xviii
Basic concept: theory and practice in action	xix
The chapters' fourfold structure	xx
Entrepreneurship: a world of paradoxes	xxi
The book's structure	xxiii

SECTION 1: WELCOME TO ENTREPRENEURSHIP

1	What is entrepreneurship?	3
	An elevator pitch for entrepreneurship	4
	Elevator pitch for you	4
	Elevator pitch for existing organisations	5
	Elevator pitch for society	5
	A historical flashback	6
	The economic tradition	8
	The social-psychological tradition	9
	The emergence tradition	10
	The opportunity tradition	11
	The book's starting point	12
	A complementary approach	12
	Central themes	14
	The significance of context	16
	The international variation	17
	Ready for departure	18
2	Who is the entrepreneur?	21
	Entrepreneurship in practice	21
	Case study: a taste of the French wine business	22
	(Devised by Alain Fayolle)
	Your immediate interpretation	25
	Theories of entrepreneurship	25
	Types of entrepreneurs	26
	The entrepreneur is born	27

The entrepreneur is made	30
Entrepreneurs: born or made?	37
A theoretical interpretation	39
The born perspective	39
The made perspective	40
Testing the theory	42

SECTION 2: THE ENTREPRENEURIAL PROCESS

3	Emergence of opportunities	47
	Entrepreneurship in practice	47
	Case study: serving the Starbucks coffee story (Devised by Saras Sarasvathy)	47
	Your immediate interpretation	50
	Theories of entrepreneurship	51
	Opportunity versus idea	51
	The extent of intentions and capabilities	52
	Types of opportunities	55
	Discovering opportunities	57
	Creating opportunities	60
	Opportunities: discovered or created?	62
	A theoretical interpretation	63
	The discovery perspective	63
	The creation perspective	64
	Testing the theory	65
4	Evaluation of opportunities	67
	Entrepreneurship in practice	67
	Case study: "The sky is the limit" (Devised by the authors)	68
	Your immediate interpretation	71
	Theories of entrepreneurship	72
	What is evaluation?	73
	The instrumental evaluation	74
	Evaluation through the creation of legitimacy	79
	Evaluation: instrumental or legitimate?	83
	A theoretical interpretation	84
	The instrumental perspective	84
	The legitimacy perspective	85
	Testing the theory	87

5	Organisation of opportunities	89
	Entrepreneurship in practice	89
	Case study: a famous chef, 'It just happened'	90
	(Devised by the authors)
	Your immediate interpretation	93
	Theories of entrepreneurship	93
	What is an organisation?	94
	What does organising involve?	96
	Organising is not always a success	99
	Organising can be planned	101
	Organising is all about improvisation	103
	Organising: planning or improvisation?	107
	A theoretical interpretation	108
	The planning perspective	108
	The improvising perspective	109
	Testing the theory	110
6	Nascent entrepreneurship	113
	Entrepreneurship in practice	113
	Case study: ADAM: community entrepreneurship	114
	(Devised by Benson Honig)
	Your immediate interpretation	117
	Theories of nascent entrepreneurship	117
	Entrepreneurship, self-employment and nascent entrepreneurship	118
	Institutional factors influencing nascent entrepreneurship	119
	Individual factors influencing nascent entrepreneurship	120
	Life events influencing nascent entrepreneurship	122
	Hybrid entrepreneurship and freelancers	125
	The start-up process	125
	Necessity perspective of nascent entrepreneurship	128
	Opportunity perspective of nascent entrepreneurship	129
	Nascent entrepreneurship: necessity based or opportunity based?	130
	A theoretical interpretation	131
	The necessity perspective	131
	The opportunity perspective	131
	Testing the theory	132

SECTION 3: THE ENTREPRENEURIAL CONTENT

7	Resources	137
	Entrepreneurship in practice	137

Case study: the idea of 3D carpets	138
(Devised by the authors)
Your immediate interpretation	140
Theories of entrepreneurship	141
From a market to a resource focus	142
A three-way split of resources	145
Resource exploitation	150
Resource exploration	151
Resources: exploit or explore?	152
A theoretical interpretation	153
The exploiting perspective	153
The exploring perspective	154
Testing the theory	155
8 Networks	157
Entrepreneurship in practice	157
Case study: a hip hop entrepreneur	158
(Devised by the authors)
Your immediate interpretation	161
Theories of entrepreneurship	162
Theory of entrepreneurship and networks	162
The heterogeneity argument	163
The homogeneity argument	166
Effective networking is situation dependent	169
Networks seen as a rational tool	171
Embedded in networks	173
Network: rational or embedded?	174
A theoretical interpretation	175
The rational perspective	176
The embedded perspective	176
Testing the theory	177
9 The business plan	179
Entrepreneurship in practice	179
Case study: Mobitrix: a start-up company in the medical software industry	179
(Devised by Thomas Cooney and Anita Van Gils)
Your immediate interpretation	183
Theories of entrepreneurship	184
The business plan: context, content and process	184
Written document or thought process	186
Planning	188

The plan's content	191
The business plan as a management tool	192
The business plan as a creativity curb	194
Business plan: management tool or creativity curb?	196
A theoretical interpretation	197
The management tool perspective	197
The creativity curb perspective	198
Testing the theory	199
10 Design thinking	201
Entrepreneurship in practice	201
Case study: kicked out of the comfort zone	201
(Devised by Birgitte Norlyk)
Your immediate interpretation	205
Theories of entrepreneurship	205
Three views of design thinking?	206
The design thinking process	209
Design thinking methods	212
Entrepreneurial thinking	213
Design thinking	215
Entrepreneurship: entrepreneurial thinking or design thinking?	218
A theoretical interpretation	22G
The entrepreneurial thinking perspective	220
The design thinking perspective	221
Testing the theory	222

SECTION 4: THE ENTREPRENEURIAL CONTEXT

11 Intrapreneurship	227
Intrapreneurship in practice	227
Case study: Man on the Moon – a business case competition in a global company	228
(Devised by William B. Gartner and Ann Hojbjerg Clarke)
Your immediate interpretation	232
Theories of entrepreneurship	232
Background story	233
A diverse concept	235
The process behind intrapreneurship	239
Top-down intrapreneurship	242
Bottom-up intrapreneurship	242
Top-down and bottom-up	243
Intrapreneurship: top-down or bottom-up?	245

A theoretical interpretation	247
The top-down perspective	247
The bottom-up perspective	248
Testing the theory	249
12 Social entrepreneurship	252
Entrepreneurship in practice	252
Case study: the parable of the teepee	253
(Devised by Kevin Hindle)
Your immediate interpretation	256
Theories of entrepreneurship	257
Introduction to social entrepreneurship	258
Social entrepreneurship as a continuum	259
Creating a better world	260
At the intersection of social and financial goals	261
Social entrepreneurship as business	262
The emergence tradition and the opportunity tradition	263
Social entrepreneurship: business or better world?	264
A theoretical interpretation	265
The business perspective	265
The better world perspective	266
Testing the theory	267
13 Public entrepreneurship	269
Entrepreneurship in practice	270
Case study: faster transport of blood samples from patients to the laboratory	270
(Devised by the authors)
Your immediate interpretation	273
Theories of public entrepreneurship	274
The public sector's characteristics in Western countries	275
Differences between the private and public sectors	277
Scarce financial resources call for entrepreneurship	279
New ways to understand the public sector today	279
Public sector entrepreneurship antecedents	282
Closed perspective of public entrepreneurship	284
Open perspective of public entrepreneurship	286
Public entrepreneurship: closed or open perspective?	288
A theoretical interpretation	288
The closed perspective	288
The open perspective	290
Testing the theory	291

14	Entrepreneurship policy	294
	Entrepreneurship in practice	294
	Case study: Enspire EU	295
	(Devised by Pia Schou Nielsen)
	Your immediate interpretation	298
	Theories of entrepreneurship	298
	The growth of the entrepreneurship policy field	299
	The rationale for entrepreneurship policy	300
	The institutional anchoring of entrepreneurship policy	303
	Target groups	304
	Entrepreneurship policy areas, objectives and measures	306
	Entrepreneurship policy from a wealth perspective	309
	Entrepreneurship policy from a welfare perspective	310
	Entrepreneurship policy: wealth or welfare?	310
	A theoretical interpretation	311
	The wealth perspective	311
	The welfare perspective	312
	Testing the theory	314
15	Synthesis and recap	316
	The book's paradoxes	316
	A synthesis of the paradoxes	318
	An objectivist approach	318
	A subjectivist approach	320
	The relevance and possible combination of the approaches	321
	Your journey is just beginning	322
	Index	325