

*Pacific
Alliance
Business and Investment
Guide*

2018 / 2019

Contents

1. General information

1 What is the Pacific Alliance?	18
2 Structure and organization	24
3 Economic situation	25

2. Diagnosis seven years after the founding of the Pacific Alliance

1 Advances in the free movement of goods and services	40
2 Advances in financial integration and the free movement of capital	41
3 Advances in freedom of movement for people	43
4 Observer states and associate members	45
5 International presence of the Pacific Alliance	46
6 Advances in social issues	48
7 Digital agenda and innovation	50
8 SMEs	51

3. Chile

1 Geography	54
2 Currency	55
3 Economy	56

4 Investment	64
5 Population	67
6 Starting a business	68
7 Tax environment	70
8 Labor regulations	76
9 Financial reporting procedures	83

4. Colombia

1 Geography	86
2 Currency	87
3 Economy	88
4 Investment	96
5 Population	101
6 Starting a business	102
7 Tax environment	105
8 Labor regulations	118
9 Financial reporting procedures	123

5. Mexico

1 Geography	128
2 Currency	129
3 Economy	130
4 Investment	138
5 Population	143

6 Starting a business	144
7 Tax environment	147
8 Labor regulations	153
9 Financial reporting procedures	159

6. Peru

1 Geography	162
2 Currency	163
3 Economy	164
4 Investment	173
5 Population	178
6 Starting a business	179
7 Tax environment	182
8 Labor regulations	192
9 Financial reporting procedures	198

7. Strategic Vision of the Pacific Alliance for 2030

1 More integrated	202
2 More global	204
3 More connected	206
4 More civic-minded	207

Exhibits

Principal regulatory and investment promotion agencies

1 Chile	212
2 Colombia	218
3 Mexico	222
4 Peru	228

Embassies and consulates of the member countries of the Pacific Alliance

1 Chile	240
2 Colombia	241
3 Mexico	242
4 Peru	243

EY business and investment promotion services

1 Assurance	247
2 Advisory	249
3 Advisory for the Financial Industry	252
4 Tax	254
5 Transactions & Corporate finance	257