

CHEIKH MBACKE GUEYE

Late Stoic Cosmopolitanism

Foundations and Relevance

Universitätsverlag
WINTER
Heidelberg

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction	1
PART I: Late Stoic Cosmopolitanism
Chapter First: Contextualizing Cosmopolitanism Within Stoic Philosophy
1. A Brief overview of Cynic Cosmopolitanism	13
2. Preliminaries about Cosmopolitanism	18
3. Contextualizing Cosmopolitanism Within the Stoic System...	22
3.1. Stoic Natural Philosophy	23
3.2. Stoic Anthropology	26
3.3. The Origin of Self-Awareness and Altruism: oikeidsis	30
4. From Natural Philosophy to Practical Ethics	36
Chapter Second: Central Features of Late Stoic Cosmopolitanism
1. Natural Law	43
2. Justice	52
3. Friendship	57
4. Love	61
5. Forgiveness	66
PART II: Achieving Cosmopolitanism Through Education
Chapter Third: On Stoic Frameworks of Education
1. Seneca's Educational Agenda: Flexibility Between Precepts and Dogmas	77
2. Epictetus' Askesis: on How to Possess Right Reason	86
3. Marcus Aurelius' Meditations: Cultivating a Universal Perspective	96
Chapter Fourth: Educating People to be Citizens of the World
1. The Role of Judgments	106
2. Freedom as Springboard and Inner Strength for Stepping out of Oneself	115

3. The Ascension from the Individual to the Universal	126
PART III: Putting Cosmopolitanism to the Test
Chapter Fifth: Cosmopolitanism and Identity
1. Cosmopolitanism and Local Identity	137
1.1. The Recognition of a Double Allegiance	138
1.2. Reconciling Inner With Outer Worlds	142
2. Cosmopolitanism and Globalization	147
2.1. Why Cosmopolitanism is Different From Globalization	148
2.2. Cosmopolitanism as a "First Step" for Globalization	150
Chapter Sixth: Cosmopolitanism and Peace
1. Inner Peace	163
2. Cultivating Peace Among Peoples	173
2.1. Altruism and the Struggles Against Prejudices	173
2.2. Compassion's Contributions to Peace Between Individuals	179
Conclusion	185
Afterword	191
Selected Bibliography	199