

Dutch New Worlds

Scenarios in Physical Planning and Design
in the Netherlands,
1970–2000

Christian Salewski

Synoptic Table of Contents 8

Foreword 10

Introduction 12

- 1 Scenarios and the Scenario Method 20
 - Thinking About the Unthinkable 21
 - Scenarios, the Paranoid-Critical Method, and Decision-Making 24
 - Futurology and Its Techniques 28
 - Scenarios as Planning Method: the French 'Prospective' 39
 - The Scenario of the Unacceptable 1971 41
 - The Scenario Method 1975 45
 - Trends and Threats: Scenarios for Public Policy 54

- 2 The Image of the Future in Dutch Physical Planning and Design 56
 - Dutch Water Works and Large-Scale Engineering 56
 - From Architecture to Socio-Spatial Constructions 60

- 3 Making Society: Support for Physical Planning Policy 76
 - Scenarios for National Physical Planning 1971–1983 76
 - The Development of the Southwestern Netherlands 1971 76
 - Scenarios for the Urbanisation Report 1974 81
 - Manual for Designing Scenarios 1981 93
 - The Significance of Explorations of the Future for Physical Planning 1981 95
 - The Future of Randstad Holland 1983 97
 - Scenarios as Planning Device: Limits of Control 108

- 4 Mechanisms of Variation: Models and Design Choices 110
 - Evolution of Form: Almere Models 1970–1975 111
 - Explorations Concerning the Development of the New Town Almere 1970 114
 - Explorations 2. Urban Area Almere 1972 117
 - Almere 1985 1974 121
 - Almere in the Regional Frame: Spatial Structure Alternatives 1975 126
 - Instant Alternatives: IJplein Reference Collages 1979–1983 132
 - Scenarios as Option Generation Device 137

- 5 Relative Utopias: Visualising Contradictory Objectives 140
- Hopes and Fears: Markerwaard Scenarios 1970–1981 140
 - Explorations Markerwaard 1974 144
 - Plan Waterlely 1974 160
 - Markerwaard Report 1976 164
 - Working Hypothesis Structure Plan IJsselmeer Area 1979 165
 - Concept for the Structure of the IJsselmeer Area 1981 172
 - Nowhere Land 1987 176
 - Another Light on the Completion of the Zuiderzee Project 1972 177
 - From Options to Alternatives to Visions 180
- 6 Exploring Visions: Testing Political Decisions and Consequences 184
- Models and Forecasts: Trend Scenarios 1955–1977 185
 - Future Models By the Central Planning Agency 185
 - The Next Twenty-Five Years (ATV) 1977 188
 - Value Patterns: Policy Scenarios 1980–1986 192
 - Policy Oriented Explorations of the Future (BTV) 1980/1983 192
 - Spatial Explorations, Three Sketches (NNAO) 1986 199
 - Scenarios as Analytical Device 208
- 7 Design as Politics: Campaigning for Makeability 210
- Ideas Market: Planning as Entrepreneurship 1983 211
 - Lobbying for Design: The Netherlands Now as Design 1985–1989 216
 - The Netherlands in 2050 According To the NNAO 230
 - Careful Netherlands 230
 - Dynamic Netherlands 232
 - Critical Netherlands 234
 - Relaxed Netherlands 236
 - Scenarios as Communicative Device 244
- 8 Stages for Action: Constructing Situations 246
- Negative Utopia: Critique Through Radicalisation 247
 - Situationism and Radical Architecture 247
 - Eropolis 1987 255
 - New Urban Frontiers, Los Angeles Alexanderpolder New York 1993 256
 - Pig City 2001 260

Ideal Cities of Pluralism: Frameworks for Uncertainty	266
Office for Metropolitan Architecture – Early Projects 1972–1989	266
Agribusiness in the Haarlemmermeerpolder 1987	272
Wildlife, a Thought Experiment for the Emptiness in the Randstad 1993	275
Buckthorn City 1995	278
Scenarios as Thought Experiments	284
9 Scenario Machine: Popularity and Disillusion	288
10 Scenarios as Tools	296
List of Abbreviations	313
Dutch Future and Spatial Studies	314
Plans and Documents Concerning the Markerwaard	316
Corpus Scenario Studies	319
Corpus Scenario Theory	319
Interviews and Conversations	320
Bibliography	322
Image Sources	337
Register	339
Acknowledgements	350