

Worldly Gurus and Spiritual Kings

ARCHITECTURE AND ASCETICISM IN MEDIEVAL INDIA

TAMARA I. SEARS

YALE UNIVERSITY PRESS NEW HAVEN AND LONDON

CONTENTS

Preface and Acknowledgments	ix
A Note on Translation, Transliteration, and Dates	xv
Introduction: Encountering the Monastery	i
CHAPTER 1
In Search of "Drunken Peacocks": Mapping Monastic Histories from Forest to State	27
CHAPTER 2
Inscribing Asceticism: Epigraphic Practices and the Materiality of Text	45
CHAPTER 3
From Herfiit's Hut to Guru's Mansion: Ascetic Practice and Monastic Life at Kadwaha and Ranod	73
CHAPTER 4
Expanding Arenas of Devotion: Temple Icons and Living Sages at Terahl and Surwaya	129
CHAPTER 5
Constructing the Guru: Monastic Networks in the Kingdom of the Kalachuris	187
Epilogue:
The Legacy of the Drunken Peacocks	231
Notes	247
Index	277