

Accelerators

Successful Venture Creation and Growth

Edited by

Mike Wright

Professor of Entrepreneurship and Director of the Centre for Management Buyout Research, Imperial College Business School, London, UK, and Visiting Professor, University of Ghent, Belgium and ETH Zurich, Switzerland

Israel Drori

Head of the Department of Organization Sciences and Chaired Professor of Organization and Globalization, Faculty of Social Science, VU, Amsterdam, the Netherlands

Edward Elgar

 PUBLISHING

Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA

Contents

List of contributors	vii
1 Accelerators: characteristics, trends and the new entrepreneurial ecosystem Israel Drori and Mike Wright	1
2 Acceleration as process: a strategy process perspective on startup acceleration Matthias Wenzel and Jochen Koch	21
3 Business accelerator governance Laurens Vandeweghe and Jyun-Ying (Trent) Fu	37
4 Understanding mentorship processes Ronit Yitshaki and Israel Drori	58
5 Selection issues Michael Leatherbee and Juanita Gonzalez-Uribe	81
6 Key performance indicators Michael Leatherbee and Juanita Gonzalez-Uribe	100
7 Revolutionizing entrepreneurial ecosystems through US and European accelerator policy Iris Vanaelst, Jonas Van Hove and Mike Wright	123
8 Use of the "ecosystem model" by accelerators at country and regional levels Jonas Van Hove, Iris Vanaelst and Mike Wright	141
9 Emergence of accelerators and accelerator policy: the case of Australia Martin Bliemel, Saskia de Klerk, Ricardo Flores and Morgan P Miles	162

- 10 Accelerators: insights for a research agenda
Massimo G. Colombo, Cristina Rossi-Lamastra and Mike Wright

Index