

IS ENTREPRENEURSHIP
DEAD?

THE TRUTH ABOUT
STARTUPS IN AMERICA

•A# •y® •y®
•j*

SCOTT A. SHANE

Yale
UNIVERSITY PRESS
New Haven and Londq

Contents

Preface	ix
Introduction	i
1 Something Is Happening, but We Don't Know What It Is	17
2 The Good News: Most Measures of Entrepreneurship Have Improved	30
3 Entrepreneurial Earnings Are on the Rise	49
4 Riding High	63
5 The Implications of Fewer Employer Startups	79
6 Its Not a Lack of Capital	95
7 Don't Blame the Regulators	108
8 High Taxes Are Not the Cause	123
9 It's Not a Lack of Immigration	133
10 An Aging Population Isn't the Reason	145
11 Slowing Population Growth Isn't the Explanation	153
12 Rising Student Debt Is Not the Cause	163
13 Don't Blame a Loss of Moxie	176

CONTENTS

14	Employees Have Become Too Expensive	187
15	Chains Have Replaced Independent Employers	205
16	The Story the Data Are Telling	216
	Notes	229
	Index	245