

A Research Agenda for Entrepreneurship Education

Edited by

ALAIN FAYOLLE

Distinguished Professor of Entrepreneurship and Director, Entrepreneurship Research Centre, EMLYON Business School, France

Elgar Research Agendas

EE Edward Elgar
PUBLISHING

Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA

Contents

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| List of contributors   | vii |
| 1 IntroductionAlain Fayolle  | 1   |
| PART I RETHINKING ENTREPRENEURSHIP EDUCATION RESEARCH   |     |
| 2 Toward rigour and relevance in entrepreneurship education researchBruce Martin, Dirk De Clercq and Benson Honig  | 13  |
| 3 Dealing with the inconsistency of studies in entrepreneurship education effectiveness: a systemic approach to drive future researchMichela Loi             | 38  |
| 4 The future of entrepreneurship education: educating for economic and social impactPatricia G. Creene, Michael L. Fetters, Richard Bliss and Anne Donnellon | 62  |
| 5 Does entrepreneurship education develop wisdom? An explorationJeffrey J. McNally, Benson Honig and Bruce Martin  | 81  |
| PART II LEARNING FROM EUROPEAN EXEMPLARY CONTRIBUTIONS  |     |
| 6 Exemplary contributions from Europe to entrepreneurship education research and practiceJonas Gabrielsson, Hans Landstrom, Diamanto Politis and Custav Hagg | 105 |
| 7 Personal views on the future of entrepreneurship educationAlain Fayolle  | 127 |
| 8 Limits to and prospects of entrepreneurship education in the academic contextBengt Johannisson   | 139 |
| 9 The conceptual contribution of education to research on entrepreneurship educationPaula Kyro   | 164 |

PART III FOCUSING ON KEY OUTCOMES AND INNOVATIVE PEDAGOGIES

|    |   |     |
|----|---|-----|
| 10 | The reflective novice entrepreneur: from habitual action to intelligent action using experience-based pedagogy as a vehicle for changeGustav Hagg          | 189 |
| 11 | Towards more synergy in entrepreneurial competence research in entrepreneurship educationThomas Lans, Yvette Baggen and Lisa Ploum                         | 224 |
| 12 | Learning fictions or facts? Moving from case studies to the impact-based methodSylvain Bureau  | 243 |
| 13 | The personal dimension of an entrepreneurial competence: an approach from the Spanish basic education contextAntonio Bernal and Francisco Linan            | 262 |
| 14 | Approaches to entrepreneurship education: a qualitative review and comparison of the US and CanadaRavi S. Ramani, George T. Solomon and Nawaf Alabduljader | 281 |
|    | Index  | 309 |