

The International Practice of Law

Liber Amicorum
for
Thomas Bar and Robert Karrer

Edited by
Nedim Peter Vogt
and

Marc Blessing, Nico H. Burki, Felix R. Ehrat, Hans-Ulrich Freimuller, Martin Karrer, Peter J. Kienast, Andreas Renggli, Markus Schnurrenberger,
Christian Steinmann, Rolf Watter

Helbing & Lichtenhahn
Basel and Frankfurt am Main

Kluwer Law International
The Hague – London – Boston

Table of Contents

Preface	7
Peter Bockli	9
Osmosis of Anglo-Saxon Concepts in Swiss Business Law
Klaus Bohlhoff	31
The International Practice of Law: Globalization or Regionalization
Robert Briner	41
The Evaluation of Evidence: Some Observations Based on the Practice of the Iran – United States Claims Tribunal
Willem J.L. Calkoen	53
Internationalisation of the Legal Profession
Jon H.I. Grouf	59
United States Trusts: Setting the Stage for Potential Litigation	87
Heinrich Honsell
Liability of Professional Advisors under Swiss and German Law	109
Pierre A. Karrer	129
Pathological Arbitration Clauses – Malpractice, Diagnosis and Therapy
Edward L. Kling	143
Arbitrating in International Antitrust Cases
Peter M. Korsch and Christian Gehling
Stock Option Plans for Executive Board Members –A New Instrument in German Company Law	167
Andre Newburg	5
Implementation of the Environmental Mandate of the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development to Further Nuclear Safety in Eastern Europe

Table of Contents

Philippe Nouel
The International Practice of Law	183
Andrew Soundy
UK Aspects of International Legal Praxis	207
Ernst Stiefel and James R. Maxeiner
Why Are U.S.-Lawyers not Learning from Comparative Law?	213
Peter D. Trooboff
Maintaining Professionalism in International Legal Practice – Challenges for the Future	237
Detlev Vagts
Bar and Karrer: Connecting Two Legal Systems	247
Peter Widmer and Benedikt Maurenbrecher
What's Negative about Negative Declarations?	263
Biographical Sketches	285