List of Contributors	vii	local regression models OLIVER B. LINTON	78
General Preface	ix
Introduction	x	logit models of individual choice THIERRY MAGNAC	83
categorical data A. COLIN CAMERON	1	longitudinal data analysis CHENG HSIAO	89
competing risks model GERARD J. VAN DEN BERG	6	matching estimators PETRA E. TODD	108
computational methods in econometrics VASSILIS A. HAJIVASSILIOU	11	maximum score methods ROBERT P. SHERMAN	122
control functions SALVADOR NAVARRO	20	mixture models BRUCE G. LINDSAY AND MICHAEL STEWART	129
decision theory in econometrics KEISUKE HIRANO	29	natural experiments and quasi-natural experiments J. DINARDO	139
difference-in-difference estimators ALBERTO ABADIE	36	nonlinear panel data models EKATERINI KYRIAZIDOU	154
exchangeability DAVID DRAPER	40	nonparametric structural models ROSA L. MATZKIN	169
extreme bounds analysis EDWARD E. LEAMER	49	partial identification in econometrics	178
field experiments JOHN A. LIST AND DAVID REILEY	53	CHARLES F. MANSKI
fixed effects and random effects BADI H. BALTAGI	59	partial linear model ELIE TAMER	189
identification JEAN-MARIE DUFOUR AND CHENG HSIAO	65	propensity score JINYONG HAHN	194
		proportional hazard model JERRY A. HAUSMAN AND TIEMEN M. WOUTERSEN	197

quantile regression MOSHE BUCHINKSY	202	social interactions (empirics) YANNIS M. IOANNIDES	293
regression-discontinuity analysis WILBERT VAN DER KLAUW	214	spatial econometrics TIMOTHY G. CONLEY	303
Roy model JAMES J. HECKMAN AND CHRISTOPHER TABER	221	survey data, analysis of JEFF DOMINITZ AND ARTHUR VAN SOEST	314
Rubin causal model GUIDO W. IMBENS AND DONALD B. RUBIN	229	Tobit model JEAN-MARC ROBIN	323
selection bias and self-selection JAMES J. HECKMAN	242	treatment effect JOSHUA D. ANGRIST	329
semiparametric estimation JAMES L. POWELL	267	variance, analysis of ANDREW GELMAN	339
simulation-based estimation ERIC RENAULT	278	INDEX	348
