

APPRAISAL

Improving performance and developing the individual

FIFTH EDITION

Clive Fletcher and
Richard Williams

R Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group

LONDON AND NEW YORK

CONTENTS

List of boxes	ix
Preface	xii
1. Appraisal and its place in performance management	1
From performance appraisal to performance management	2
Appraisal in context	6
Is performance management working?	14
In summary	17
2. The aims of appraisal: organisational and individual perspectives	21
The organisational perspective	21
Performers' perspectives	26
Line managers' perspectives	28
Setting realistic aims for appraisal	30
In summary	32
3. Performance	36
Process performance	37
What are the 'causes' of process performance?	50
Outcome (output/results) performance	54
In summary	58

4. Assessing performance, the person and the situation	63
Assessing performance	63
Assessing the person	72
Assessing the situation	77
In summary	78
5. Designing appraisal systems	81
An involving and consultative approach to design	82
Design and trial	87
Using information technology in appraisal	101
In summary	106
6. Appraising, identifying and developing potential	109
The conventional appraisal process as a means of assessing short- and long-term potential	112
Career review panels	113
The interview in assessing short- and long-term potential	115
Using psychometric tests in assessing potential	118
Assessment centres	127
In summary	133
7. Multi-level, multi-source feedback for appraisal and development	138
The typical 360° feedback system	138
The burning issue – appraisal or development?	144
The quality of 360° feedback	148
Effectiveness: what the research says	149
Best practice in developing and implementing 360° feedback	153
Some trends and issues in multi-source feedback use	162
In summary	163

8. Appraisal with professionals, and across different sectors	169
Appraisal within and across public and private sectors	169
Appraisal issues with professional and scientific staff J	172
Designing and implementing appraisal for professional staff	175
Appraising promotion potential among professional staff	181
In summary	182
9. Cultural challenges in applying performance appraisal	186
Cultural differences in the context of multi-source feedback	191
The interplay of organisational and national cultures	192
What should we conclude?	194
In summary	195
10 Training, and the implementation and maintenance of appraisal	199
Different approaches to training raters	200
Beyond rating scales: training in handling appraisal	201
Training in coaching	209
Training appraisees	209
Other issues in appraisal training	211
Monitoring and maintenance: keeping appraisal on the right lines	216
Methods and sources of evaluation	221
In summary	230
11. Performance appraisal: best practice, best results	234
Best practice in designing and implementing PA	237
Structuring PA: re-learning old lessons	239
Beyond PA: a broader perspective	243

Appendix A: Job and work analysis and competency modelling	247
Appendix B: Measures for evaluating the effects and impact of performance appraisal	257
Experience of the appraisal process	257
Attitude measures	259
Index	263