

Sustainability

A cultural history

ULRICH GROBER

translated by Ray Cunningham

green books

Contents

Foreword by Prof. Klaus Bosselmann.....	8
1. " . . . AN INNATE ABILITY . . . "?	11
Prologue
2. WORD GAMES.....	17
Conceptual confusion – A closer look – A collection of formulations
3. "THE MOST BEAUTIFUL STAR IN THE HEAVENS"	22
Icon Earth – Silent Spring – The cry of the butterfly – The hierarchy of needs – Power to the imagination
4. UR-TEXTS	35
Canticle of the Sun – Taking care of Creation – The murder of Mother Earth
5. A EUROPEAN DREAM.....	48
The astronomical perspective 1440-1634 – Out of joint – The Descartes Model – The Spinoza Model – The best of all possible worlds
6. VIRTUOSI	59
The forests of la Serenissima – " . . . to manage woods discreetly!" – The forestry reforms of the Sun King
7. THE CREATION OF THE WORD.....	76
An 18th-century Silicon Valley – " . . . a pure Spinozist" – A Saxon European – Creating the word – The three pillars of Sustainability – A glance towards the Far East – The testing-ground of Weimar – In Goethe's forests
8. THE BIRTH OF ECOLOGY.....	90
Linnaeus's "oeconomia naturae" – The Cosmos of Weimar – " . . . a star among stars . . . " – Songs of the Earth – Competing visions – The first ecologist – Defining ecology – Environment and development
9. MEASURING THE FORESTS.....	112
100 hectares of old-growth forest – The enchanted forest, and the reality – Working on the term – The academy for sustainability – 'Managing' the forest – The 'normal' forest – Early warnings – The invisible hand of the market – The invention of the pest

10. FOSSIL, NUCLEAR, SOLAR.....	127
Wood shortages and 'sea-coal' – The subterranean forests – A ticking time-bomb – The solar era – "Brighter than a thousand suns ... " – The discovery of photovoltaics
11. TRANSLATING 'SUSTAINABILITY'	140
The path over the Alps – Tharandt and Nancy – In the forests of the north – 'Sustained yield' in the jungle – The American way – Breakthrough
12. EARTH POLITICS I: NEW BEGINNINGS.....	155
Limits to growth – "... a durable and habitable planet" – "Behold, I make all things new" – Gaia
13. EARTH POLITICS II: MOVING ON TO THE NEXT LEVEL.....	174
Living resources – Rethinking development – The Brundtland Formulation – The spirit of Rio
14. WHAT NEXT?	187
EPILOGUE	198
Acknowledgements	202
References	203
Bibliography	207
Index	211