

THE SILK ROADS
Highways of Culture and Commerce

Edited by

Vadime Elisseeff

T

Berghahn Books
New York • Oxford

UNESCO Publishing

CONTENTS

Foreword by Doudou Diene	viii
Contributors	x
List of Abbreviations	xiv
Introduction Approaches Old and New to the Silk Roads Vadime Elisseeff	1
Chapter 1 Perspectives on Buddhism in Dunhuang during the Tang and Five Dynasties Period Henrik H. Sørensen	27
Chapter 2 The Expansion of Buddhism into Southeast Asia (Mainly before A.D. 1000) J.G. de Casparis	49
Chapter 3 The Travels of Marco Polo in the Land of Buddhism Ananda Abeydeera	69
Chapter 4 Indus-Gulf Relations: A Reassessment in the Light of New Evidence Nilofer Shaikh	81
Chapter 5 The Southern Silk Road: Archaeological Evidence of Early Trade between India and Southeast Asia Ian C. Glover	93
Chapter 6 An Inscription in Memory of Sayyid Bin Abu Ali: A Study of Relations between China and Oman from the Eleventh to the Fifteenth Century Liu Yingsheng	122

Chapter 7 The Mongol Empire in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Centuries: East-West Relations Bira Shagdar	127
Chapter 8 A Brunei Sultan of the Early Fourteenth Century: A Study of an Arabic Gravestone Chen Da-sheng	145
Chapter 9 Caravanserais along the Grand Trunk Road in Pakistan: A Central Asian Legacy Saifur Rahman Dar	158
Chapter 10 Maritime Trade from the Fourteenth to the Seventeenth Century: Evidence from the Underwater Archaeological Sites in the Gulf of Siam Sayan Prishanchit	185
Chapter 11 The Ban on the Export of Certain Articles from the Levant to the Mediterranean Ports during the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Centuries Zeki Arikan	199
Chapter 12 The Impact of the Macao-Manila Silk Trade from the Beginnings to 1640 Rui D'Avila Lourido	209
Chapter 13 Inner Asian Muslim Merchants at the Closure of the Silk Routes in the Seventeenth Century Isenbike Togan	247
Chapter 14 The Exchange of Musical Influences between Korea and Central Asia in Ancient Times Song Bang-Song	264
Chapter 15 The Trade Routes and the Diffusion of Artistic Traditions in South and Southeast Asia Nandana Chutiwongs	111
Chapter 16 The Development of Chinas Navigation Technology and of the Maritime Silk Route Sun Guangqi	288

Chapter 17 Mongol Nomadic Pastoralism:
A Tradition between Nature and History
Jacques Legrand

Chapter 18 The Spiritual Identity of the Silk Roads: A Historical Overview of Buddhism and Islam
Amir H. Zekrgoo

Appendix: International Seminars and Colloquiums Held during the UNESCO
Silk Roads Expeditions