

Alexander Schilling

Modelbuilding

Third edition

BIRKHAUSER
BASEL

FOREWORD _7

THE ARCHITECTURAL MODEL AS A MEANS OF REPRESENTATION _8

TYPES OF MODELS J 1

Conceptual models (without a concrete scale) _12

Urban design and landscape models, site and topography __13

Architectural/building models _16

Interior models _17

Detailed models _19

DESIGN AND CONCEPT DEVELOPMENT _21

Color and materials _21

Composition and proportion _22

Abstraction and level of detail _23

EQUIPMENT, TOOLS AND TECHNIQUES _26

Cutting _26

Gluing _30

Modelling, shaping and casting _33

Machines in the modelling workshop _35

Hot wire cutters _40

Digital model making _41

MATERIALS _48

Paper, paperboard and cardboard _49

Wood and wood-based materials _53

Metals _58

Plastics _61

Paints and varnishes _66

Plaster, clay and modelling clays _67

Accessories: trees, figures and cars _69

FROM DRAWING TO MODEL –

STEPS AND APPROACHES _72

A few preliminary thoughts _72

The mounting board _72

Making individual building elements _74

Assembling the elements _77

Final tasks and accessories _78

Presentation _79

IN CONCLUSION _80

APPENDIX _81

Acknowledgements _81

Picture credits _82

The author _83