

UWE FLICK

INTRODUCING RESEARCH METHODOLOGY

Thinking Your Way Through
Your Research Project

Los Angeles | London | New Delhi
Singapore | Washington DC | Melbourne

EXTENDED CONTENTS

List of Figures	xiii
List of Tables	xv
About the Author	xvii
Preface to the Third Edition	xix
Online Resources	xxv

PART I ORIENTATION	1
1 Why Social Research?	3
What is Social Research?	3
The Tasks of Social Research	6
What Can You Achieve with Social Research?	8
Quantitative and Qualitative Research	10
Doing Research On Site, Doing it Online or Combining the Two	16
Why and How Research Can Be Fun	16
What you Need to Ask Yourself	17
What You Need to Succeed	19
What You Have Learned	19
What's Next	20
2 Worldviews in Social Research	23
Positivism	24
Critical Rationalism	25
Interpretative Paradigm	27
Constructionism	29
Social Research between Fundamentalism and Pragmatism	31
What You Need to Ask Yourself	34
What You Need to Succeed	35
What You Have Learned	35
What's Next	36
3 Ethical Issues in Social Research	39
Principles of Ethically Acceptable Research	40
Informed Consent	41
Confidentiality, Anonymity and Data Protection	43

How to Avoid Causing Harm to Participants	46
Codes of Ethics	48
Ethics Committees	49
Rules of Good Scientific Practice	51
Research Ethics: Cases and Mass Research-	51
Research Ethics in Digital and Online Research	51
Data Protection: Regulations in the European Union	53
Conclusion	55
What You Need to Ask Yourself	56
What You Need to Succeed	57
What You Have Learned	57
What's Next	58
4 From Research Idea to Research Question	61
Starting Points for Research	61
Origins of Research Questions	65
Characteristics of Research Questions	67
Good Research Questions, Bad Research Questions	71
The Use of Hypotheses	73
What You Need to Ask Yourself	74
What You Need to Succeed	75
What You Have Learned	76
What's Next	76
PART II PLANNING AND DESIGN	79
5 Reading and Reviewing the Literature	81
The Scope of a Literature Review	81
What Do We Mean by 'Literature'?	82
Finding Literature	84
Areas of Literature	86
Reading Empirical Studies	88
How to Construct and Write a Literature Review	89
Referencing the Literature	95
Plagiarism and How to Avoid It	99
What You Need to Ask Yourself	100
What You Need to Succeed	101
What You Have Learned	102
What's Next	102

EXTENDED CONTENTS

6 Steps in the Research Process	105
Overview of the Research Process	105
The Research Process in Quantitative Research	106
The Research Process in Qualitative Research	113
Comparing the Processes of Quantitative and Qualitative Research	118
What You Need to Ask Yourself	121
What You Need to Succeed	121
What You Have Learned	122
What's Next	122
7 Designing Social Research	125
Writing a Proposal for a Research Project	125
Developing a Timescale	127
Designing a Study	130
Research Designs in Quantitative Research	131
Qualitative Research Designs	135
Sampling	138
Sampling Strategies in Quantitative Research	139
Sampling Strategies in Qualitative Research	143
Sampling and Access in Online Research	146
What You Need to Ask Yourself	149
What You Need to Succeed	149
What You Have Learned	150
What's Next	150
PART III METHOD SELECTION	153
8 Deciding on Your Methods	155
Decisions in the Research Process	155
Decisions in Planning a Quantitative Study	156
Decisions in Planning a Qualitative Study	165
Decisions within Quantitative and Qualitative Research	173
Deciding between Qualitative and Quantitative Research	174
Deciding between Doing Research On Site or Online	175
Deciding on Specific Approaches to Research	175
Reflection Halfway through the Process	176
What You Need to Ask Yourself	176
What You Need to Succeed	178

What You Have Learned	178
What's Next	179
9 Triangulation and Mixed Methods	181
Combining Different Approaches	181
Mixed Methods	183
Triangulation	186
Digital Research as a Complementary Strategy	191
Pragmatism and the Issue as Points of Reference	192
What You Need to Ask Yourself	193
What You Need to Succeed	194
What You Have Learned	194
What's Next	194
PART IV WORKING WITH DATA	197
10 Using Existing Data	199
What Does Existing Data Mean?	200
Why Use Existing Data?	200
Information and Data	201
Secondary Analysis	202
Working with Documents	206
Visual Data as Documents: Photo and Film	209
Analyzing Internet Documents and Interactions	210
Social Media for Doing Research	211
Problems with Using Digital Data	214
Big Data	215
What You Need to Ask Yourself	216
What You Need to Succeed	216
What You Have Learned	217
What's Next	217
11 Collecting New Data	221
Surveys and Interviews	221
Quantitative Surveys: Questionnaires	224
Qualitative Inquiries: Interviews and Focus Groups	230
Online Surveys, Interviews and Focus Groups	241
Observation	245
Obtaining and Documenting Information	252
What You Need to Ask Yourself	258

EXTENDED CONTENTS

What You Need to Succeed	258
What You Have Learned	259
What's Next	259
12 Analyzing Data	261
Quantitative Data Analysis	262
Quantitative Content Analysis	262
Quantitative Analysis of other Forms of Data	265
Qualitative Analysis	273
Transcription of Interview Data	273
Qualitative Content Analysis	276
Grounded Theory Coding	280
Thematic Coding	284
Thematic Analysis	285
Interpretative Methods: Analyzing Narratives	286
Formal Approaches: Talk in (Inter-) Action	288
Interpretative Methods of Analyzing Qualitative Data	290
Case Studies and Typologies	290
Data Analysis in Mixed Methods and Triangulation Research	293
What You Need to Ask Yourself	294
What You Need to Succeed	294
What You Have Learned	295
What's Next	295
PART V REFLECTION AND WRITING	297
13 What is Good Research? Evaluating Your Research Project	299
Evaluating Empirical Studies	299
Quality and Evaluation of Quantitative Research	300
Reliability	300
Validity	302
Objectivity	307
Representativeness	307
Quality and Evaluation of Qualitative Research	308
Reformulation of Traditional Criteria	308
Method-appropriate Criteria	310
Generalization	312
Standards and Quality in Digital Research	314
Limits of Research Approaches	315
Limits of Quantitative Research	315

Limits of Qualitative Research	317
Limits of Triangulation and Mixed Methods in Social Research	320
What You Need to Ask Yourself	320
What You Need to Succeed	321
What You Have Learned	321
What's Next	322
14 Writing Up Research and Using Results	325
Goals of Writing Up Social Research	326
Writing Up Quantitative Research	326
Writing Up Qualitative Research	332
Issues of Writing	338
Outlets for Writing	338
Feeding Back Results to Participants	340
Using Data in Debate	341
What You Need to Ask Yourself	343
What You Need to Succeed	343
What You Have Learned	344
What's Next	344
Glossary	347
References	357
Name Index	375
Subject Index	379