

International Entrepreneurship

A Comparative Analysis

Susan Freeman, Zhu Ying and Malcolm Warner

Routledge

Taylor & Francis Group

LONDON AND NEW YORK

Contents

1	Introduction: the origins of entrepreneurship and internationalization	1
2	International entrepreneurship and schools of thought	22
3	International entrepreneurship: its emergence from international business and entrepreneurship	55
4	International entrepreneurship in emerging and Western markets: the rising influence of China	82
5	Ethnicity and entrepreneurship	104
6	Australia and its history of immigration and entrepreneurship	114
7	Internationalization of Chinese entrepreneurship	134
8	Ethnic entrepreneurs in the West vis A vis those in the East: Jewish entrepreneurs' experience	151
9	Conclusion: comparative analysis of internationalization of entrepreneurship	167
	Index	179