

Entrepreneurship in Action

The Power of Student-Run Ventures

Edited by

Eric W. Liguori

*Rohrer Endowed Chair of Entrepreneurship and Executive Director, Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship, Rohrer
College of Business, Rowan University, USA*

Mark Tonelli

*Assistant Professor of Music and coordinator of guitar studies,
College of Fine Arts, Millikin University, USA*

Edward Elgar
PUBLISHING

Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA

Contents

Notes on contributors	vii
Editorial review board	viii
Foreword	ix
Acknowledgements	xii

PART I CONTEMPORARY PERSPECTIVES ON STUDENT-RUN VENTURES

1	Entrepreneurship in action: the power of the student-run venture Mark Tonelli	2
2	Student-run ventures and interdisciplinary entrepreneurship education Eric W. Liguori and Lee Zane	7
3	Creating a culture for student-run ventures Julienne Shields	12
4	Role clarity in SRVs: students, faculty, and administrators Julienne Shields, Eric W. Liguori, and Mark Tonelli	25
5	Student-run venture outcomes Julienne Shields and Mark Tonelli	35
6	The Millikin University SRV model: frequently asked questions Julienne Shields and Mark Tonelli	42
7	Reacting to crisis: how student-run ventures pivoted following the 2020 COVID-19 pandemic Mark Tonelli	53

PART II STUDENT-RUN VENTURE CASE SUMMARIES

8	Pipe Dreams Studio Theatre Sara Theis	63
---	---	----

9	Art Circus Dave Burdick	77
10	Blue Satellite Press Stephen Freeh	88
11	MU Performance Consulting RJ Podeschi	104
12	Blue Connection Art Gallery Kate Flemming	116
13	Arts Cafe Mark Tonelli	133
	Index	149