

Johannes Ruegg-Sturm
Simon Grand

Managing in a Complex World

The St. Gallen Management Model

Haupt Verlag

Preface	5
Acknowledgments	6
How best to approach this book	9

INTRODUCTION

1	Why is a detailed examination of management more important than ever?	20
2	Organizational Value Creation: The Key Reference Point of Management	22
2.1	Value Creation as Outcome and Process	22
2.2	Value Creation as Organizational Achievement	23
2.3	Primary and Supplementary Value Creation	24
2.4	Value Creation in Environment-Organization Interaction	25
2.5	Types of Organizations	26
2.6	Organizational Value Creation as Management Focus	28
3	The St. Gallen Management Model (SGMM)	28
3.1	What are Models for?	28
3.2	What does the SGMM achieve?	29
3.3	Overview of the SGMM	30
3.4	The Development of the SGMM	33
3.5	Environment, Organization, and Management: A Systems-Oriented View	34
3.5.1	What is a System?	34
3.5.2	The Importance of Context	35
3.5.3	The Importance of Interdependencies	36
3.5.4	Consequences for the Understanding of Management	37

THE TASK PERSPECTIVE

39

Overview	40
1 Environmental Spheres	44
1.1 Economy	45
1.2 Technology	46
1.3 Nature	47
1.4 Society	48
1.5 Relationships between Dynamic Environmental Spheres	49
2 Stakeholders	50
2.1 Individuals, Communities, and Organizations	50
2.2 Stakeholder Concepts	51
2.3 Interrelations between Different Stakeholder Concepts	52
3 Interaction Issues	54
3.1 Concerns and Interests	54
3.2 Norms and Values	55
3.3 Resources	56
3.4 The Importance of Interaction Issues for Normative and Strategic Orientation	56
4 Processes	58
4.1 The Growing Importance of Process-Oriented Design Work	58
4.2 Process-Oriented Design Concepts	60
4.3 Process Categories	62
4.3.1 Management Processes	63
4.3.2 Business Processes and Business Model	64
4.3.3 Support Processes	66
4.3.4 Financial Management Processes	67
4.4 Process Development	68

5	Structuring Forces	70
5.1	Governance	71
5.2	Strategy	72
5.2.1	Understanding Strategy	72
5.2.2	Important Aspects of Strategy Definition	72
5.2.3	Strategic Design Fields	74
5.2.4	Strategy Work: Outside-In and Inside-Out Perspectives	76
5.3	Structure	80
5.3.1	Understanding Structure	80
5.3.2	Differentiation and Integration	80
5.3.3	Visualizing Configuration: Organizational Charts	81
5.3.4	Functional Structure	83
5.3.5	Divisional Structure	83
5.3.6	Matrix Structure	84
5.3.7	Formal and Informal Organization	86
5.4	Culture	86
5.4.1	Understanding Culture	86
5.4.2	Organizational Culture: A Manifold Implicit Structuring Force	88
5.4.3	Subcultures	89
5.4.4	Designability of Organizational Culture	90
6	Development Modes	92
6.1	Optimization and Renewal	93
6.2	Effectiveness and Efficiency as Development Focus	95
6.3	Organizational Change: Content and Relationship Dimensions	96
6.4	Impact Intensity of Organizational Change	97
	Task Perspective: Core Statements	100

TRANSITION TO THE PRACTICE PERSPECTIVE 103

1	Organization and Management: A Complexity-Appropriate Approach	104
2	Increasing Complexity and Experiencing Contingency	105
2.1	Hallmarks of Management Work: Volatility, Uncertainty, Complexity, Ambiguity	105
2.2	The Enlightenment: Driver of Innovation and Change	107
2.2.1	The Rise of Stabilizing Institutions	109
2.2.2	Innovation Dynamics as Driver of Progress	110
2.3	The Multi-Option Society: A Challenge for Management Practice	112
2.4	Consequences of Increasing Complexity for Value Creation	114
3	Practice Perspective: Scientific Foundations	116
3.1	Practice Theory	117
3.2	Autopoietic Social Systems Theory	120
3.3	Common Features of Practice Theory and Autopoietic Social Systems Theory	127

THE PRACTICE PERSPECTIVE 131

Overview 132

1	Value Creation	138
1.1	Differentiation	139
1.2	Resource Configuration	146
1.3	Value Creation Processes	148

1.4	Decision-Making Practice	154
1.4.1	Decisions as Heavily Preconditioned Communication Processes	154
1.4.2	Decision-Making Necessities	158
1.4.3	Processing Forms	160
1.4.4	Decision-Making Capacity	164
1.5	Relationship Culture	167
2	Orientation Framework	170
2.1	Operational Orientation	174
2.2	Strategic Orientation	175
2.3	Normative Orientation	179
3	Environment	184
3.1	Environmental Spheres	186
3.2	Stakeholders	188
3.3	Conditions for Existence	191
3.3.1	Possibilities	191
3.3.2	Expectations	193
3.3.3	Resources	196
4	Management Practice	198
4.1	The SGMM's Understanding of Management	199
4.2	Manager Communities	208
4.3	Design Platforms	210
4.4	Design Practices	214
4.5	Language of Reflection	223
4.6	Key Manifestations of Management Practice	226
	Practice Perspective: Core Statements	228
	EPILOGUE	231
	List of figures	242
	References	244
	Subject index	258