

Management Studies in Crisis

Fraud, Deception and Meaningless Research

DENNIS TOURISH

University of Sussex

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

List of Tables	page ix
Acknowledgements	x
Introduction: the Crisis in Management Studies	1
1. Flawed from the Get-Go: the Early Misadventures of Management Research	8
2. How Audit Damages Research and Academic Freedom	34
3. 'When the Levee Breaks': Academic Life on the Brink	60
4. The Corruption of Academic Integrity	80
5. Paradise Lost but Not Regained: Retractions and Management Studies	106
6. The Triumph of Nonsense in Management Studies	133
7. Flawed Theorising, Dodgy Statistics and (In)Authentic Leadership Theory	161
8. The Promises, Problems and Paradoxes of Evidence-Based Management	189
9. Reclaiming Meaningful Research in Management Studies	212

10. Putting Zest and Purpose Back into Academic Life	234
Notes	252
Index	299