

Gesche Joost
Katharina Bredies
Michele Christensen
Florian Conradi
Andreas Unteidiq (Eds.)

Design as Research

Positions, Arguments, Perspectives

CONTENTS

Foreword BIRD GescheJoost	007
Design / Research
Introduction Katharina Bredies	012
Where Are We Going? An Aspirational Map Elizabeth B.-N. Sanders	017
The Resourceful Social Expert: Defining the Future Craft of Design Research Mike Press	022
The Myth of the Design Androgyne Alain Findeli	028
Doing Research: Design Research in the Context of the 'Practice Turn' Claudia Mareis	035
Project-Grounded Responses: Design / Research	042
Text/Object
Introduction Andreas Unteidig	060
Communication in Design Research Brigitte Wolf	064
Text vs. Artefact in Design Research? A Strange Question! Wolfgang Jonas	070
Nothing Fixed: An Essay on Fluidity in Design Research Uta Brandes	077
Everyday Homeopathy in Practice-Changing Design Research Cameron Tonkinwise	083
Project-Grounded Responses: Text/Object	091

Visual Stances	107
Borrowing /Stealing
Introduction Florian Conradi	128
Design Research – No Boundaries Rachel Cooper	131
Theories and Methods in Design Research – Why We Should Discuss Concrete Projects Arne Scheuermann	137
In Praise of Theft: 'The Play with Borrowing vs. Stealing from other Fields'... Or, the Problem of Design Research Clive Dilnot	143
Design Prepositions Ranulph Glanville	153
Project-Grounded Responses: Borrowing/Stealing	166
Discipline / Indiscipline
Introduction Michelle Christensen	182
Transdisciplinary Research through Design – Shifting Paradigms as an Opportunity Matthias Held	186
Indiscipline William Gaver	193
Design, an Undisciplinable Profession Klaus Krippendorff	197
Between Possibility and Discipline or: Design Research as Provocation to the Faint-Hearted Michael Erlhoff	207
Project-Grounded Responses:
Discipline/Indiscipline	212
Authors	227
Responders	235