

Family Business

Carole Howorth and Nick Robinson

Routledge

Taylor & Francis Group

LONDON AND NEW YORK

Contents

List of figures

List of boxes

1 What's so special about family business?

Learning objectives 2

A day in the life: family business in Anytown 2

Exemplifying family business issues 4

Why study family businesses? 8

Structure of the book 9

Key learning points 10

Summary 10

Discussion questions 11

2 Nothing so practical as a good theory

Learning objectives 12

Families and businesses 12

Three-Circle Model 14

Three-Dimensional Development Model 18

Analysing the family: genograms 20

Analysing ownership 23

Analysing the business 25

Key learning point 26

Summary 26

Discussion questions 21

Case study 2.1: The prodigal daughter 21

3 Family firms: same or different?

Learning objectives 30

Definitions of family business 30

Importance of family business definitions 31

- Variety of definitions 32
- Scales of familiness 33
- Different types of family firms* 34
 - Warm hearts, deep pockets 35
- Agency theory and stewardship theory* 36
 - Six conceptual types of family firms 37
 - Variation within types 39
- Key learning points* 40
- Summary* 40
- Discussion questions* 41
- Case study 3.1: When blood boils over* 41

4 Professionalisation and governance

- Learning objectives* 45
- What are the relevant issues for governance?* 45
- Family governance* 48
 - Family charter 49
 - Why would you need a family charter? 50
 - Family meetings 51
 - Family assembly 51
 - Family council 51
 - Family office 52
- Corporate governance* 53
 - Boards of directors 54
- Professionalisation process* 57
- Key learning points* 58
- Summary* 59
- Discussion questions* 60
- Case study 4.1: Succession and governance in the Guinness family* 60
- Case study 4.2: Professionalisation for long-term sustainability in the Dennis family* 61

5 Families in business: expansion and entrepreneurship

- Learning objectives* 64
- From family business to families in business* 64
- Social capital* 65
 - Social capital and familiness 67
- Stewardship influence on entrepreneurship* 69
- Trust* 70
- Portfolio entrepreneurship* 72
 - Family business groups 74

Family entrepreneurial teams	75
Putting entrepreneurship into context	77
Key learning point	78
Summary	78
Discussion questions	79
Case study 5.1: Families across borders, across boundaries	79
Case study 5.2: La Empalizada – power of networks versus power of land	80
6 Succession issues and alternatives	82
Learning objectives	83
What are the issues for succession?	83
Incumbents not letting go	83
Successor selection	85
Limitations of the gene pool	85
Commitment	86
Divorce, cohabitation, and stepchildren	86
Motivation of successors	87
Typology of post-succession retirement styles	88
Succession alternatives	90
Management succession	90
Non-family management	92
Stop-gap manager	93
Joint CEOs	93
Ownership succession	95
Alternatives to family ownership succession	96
Selling the family business	96
Management buyout	97
Trade sale	97
Liquidation	98
Key learning points	98
Summary	98
Discussion questions	99
Case study 6.1: LVMH Moët Hennessy Louis Vuitton	99
Case study 6.2: Forced succession at Brown Brothers wine estate	100
7 Succession processes and the next generation	102
Learning objectives	102
Why many family businesses avoid succession planning	103
Resistance to change	103
Sibling rivalry	104
Power	104

Sensitivity	105
Too busy	106
Summary of reasons	106
The succession process	107
Succession as a relay race	108
Succession as a dance	109
Correlates of success	110
Fairness and procedural justice	110
Tax considerations	111
The succession process and learning	112
Succession process and education	113
Next generation and gender	114
Next generation perspective	115
Key learning points	116
Summary	116
Discussion questions	117
Case study 7.1: Fair shares and Gucci	117
Case study 7.2: Socialisation and a change of heart	119

8 Finance, investment, and shareholding

Learning objectives	122
Are finance issues different for family businesses?	122
Illiquid shares	122
Agency issues	123
Contextual factors	123
Rights and responsibilities of family business shareholders	123
Supply of finance	125
Information asymmetries and agency theory	125
Demand for finance	127
The pecking order hypothesis	127
Financial strategies	128
Private equity	128
Public listing of family businesses	130
Classes of shares	130
Pruning the family tree	131
Exit strategies	132
Negotiating a value for the family business	132
Key learning point	134
Summary	134
Discussion questions	135
Case study 8.1: The Stronach succession	135

9 Community, philanthropy, and social responsibility

Learning objectives 139

Distinguishing between different concepts 140

Philanthropy 140

Corporate social responsibility 141

Charitable giving 142

Community engagement 143

Theoretical insights 144

Embeddedness 145

Altruism, reciprocity, and giving 145

Cultural, contextual, and business drivers of philanthropy 147

Faith and family business philanthropy 148

Practicalities of philanthropy 150

Key learning point 150

Summary 150

Discussion questions 151

Case study 9.1: Tata Sons philanthropy in India 151

Case study 9.2: Wilsden Equestrian Centre 153

10 Longevity and the future for family firms

Learning objectives 156

Looking back to look forward 156

The oldest family businesses in the world 156

A historical perspective on longevity 157

Continuity and change: an insight into innovation 160

Theories of innovation 161

How might family businesses help or hinder innovation? 162

Long-term orientation 165

Industry and technology 166

What does the future hold for family businesses? 167

Key learning points 168

Summary 169

Discussion questions 169

Case study 10.1: J. W. Lees continuity and discontinuity 169

References

Index