

Ideas of Ambiente

History and Bourgeois Ethics
in the Construction of Modern Milan
1881-1969

Angelo Lunati

Contents

Foreword by Adam Caruso	7
About ambiente	13
1. The nineteenth-century Romantic roots of ambiente	17
The birth of Milano borghese	18
The roots of the architectural concept of ambiente	32
• Camillo Boito's ideas on environmental unity
• The discourse on the historic city: from Camillo Sitte to Gustavo Giovannoni's ambiente dei monumenti
• The idea of ambiente in Luca Beltrami's projects for Milan's monuments
2. Novecento and ambiente	57
Milan modern metropolis	58
City and anti-individualism	84
Environmental quality around Sant'Ambrogio, 1922—36	102
• Filatura Cascami Seta building by Piero Portaluppi
• Università Cattolica: entrance and office building by Giovanni Muzio
3. What is missing?	159
The postwar city: a new culture and bourgeois ethos	160
Ernesto Rogers' quest	180
Environmental quality in the postwar construction of the area around the Racchetta and San Nazaro, 1943-68	218
• Asnago Vender's block for Ferdinando Zanoletti
• Luigi Caccia Dominioni's block for Cartiere Binda

4. Whatever happened to ambiente?	269
The decline of bourgeois energy	270
Against ambiente	279
Coda	295
Biographical notes	302
Note on sources	308
Acknowledgements	310