

Urban Design in the 20th Century

Tom Avermaete Janina Gosseye

gta Verlag

A History

8	Urban Design in the Twentieth Century: Histories and Pedigrees of a Cross-Cultural Field
10	Defining Urban Design
12	Histories of Practice and the Practice of History
14	Nineteenth-Century Pedigrees: Of Progressists, Culturalists, and Naturalists
21	Urban Design as a Cross-Cultural Field
25	Chapter Overview

31 1: Housing and the Industrial City

37	Speculative Housing for Workers
37	The Pragmatic Housing of Mumbai's Chawls
40	Housing the Working Classes in New York City's Tenements
43	The New Urban Types of the Mietskaserne in Berlin and the Blockrand in Zurich
46	Visionary Towns for Companies and Industry
46	Port Sunlight, a Green Company Town
49	Tony Garnier's Cité Industrielle
53	Cooperatives Take Control
53	Groß-Zürich and Its Housing Cooperatives
57	Brussels's Garden Cities
60	The State Model
67	The Continuous Quest for Workers' Housing

71 2: Cities and Ideologies

76	Ideologies of Housing
77	Befreites Wohnen
87	Balancing Individuality and Collectivity in Housing Estates
98	Soviet Housing for a Noyvi Byt
104	Cities as Forms of Power
106	A New Berlin for a New Reich
108	Moscow's Monuments to Bureaucracy
111	Underground Palaces for the People
115	The Vicissitudes of State and Ideology

119 3: Envisioning Urban Utopias

124	Le Corbusier's Ideal of an Open City
125	The Maison Dom-ino as Primordial Urban Element
129	Reassembling Individual and Collective Dwelling Values in the Immeuble Villa
129	The Ville Contemporaine and the Principles of Modern Urbanism
133	Functionalist and Socialist Ideals in the Ville Radieuse
138	Engaging with Colonialism in Plan Obus
141	Hilberseimer's Vertical Metropolis
142	Frank Lloyd Wright's Urbanity without a City
149	Utopia's Afterlife

153 4: Reconstructing the City, Constructing New Towns

- 159 Reconstructing the City
- 159 Hiroshima's Empty Heart
- 163 New Centralities in the War-Torn Dutch City
- 173 Reconstruction as a Collective Material Oeuvre
- 176 The Mid-century New Town Movement
- 177 New Towns for New Industries
- 181 New Towns for Regional Development
- 189 A New Generation of New Towns
- 192 Life and Legacy of New Urban Plans

197 5: New Capitals for New Democracies, New Institutions for Old Democracies

- 202 New Capitals for New Democracies
- 203 Fort-Lamy beyond Urban Apartheid
- 206 Chandigarh and Islamabad as Post-colonial Capitals
- 215 Monumentality and the New Urban Landscape of Brasilia
- 219 New Institutions for Old Democracies
- 219 State Building for Mass Culture and Mass Education
- 227 Private Actors Constructing Commercial Collectivity
- 232 City Construction by Civic Society
- 237 The Prospects and Perils of Technocratic Urban Design

243 6: Rethinking Master Planning

- 250 Revised Typologies for the City
- 255 Towards a Configurative Urban Discipline
- 260 The Public Space of Stem and Web
- 267 Agency in Housing: Between Supports and Infill
- 271 Systems Thinking through Patterns and Clusters
- 278 Thinking the City as Metabolism
- 280 Megastructures between Incrementality and Participation
- 288 The Rise and Fall of Human-Centred and Process-Driven Urban Design Approaches

293 7: Countercultural Experiments with Urbanity

- 298 Freedom and Self-Determination
- 298 The Nomadism and Collective Grounds of New Babylon
- 302 Accommodating Citizen Agency in the Ville Spatiale
- 305 Architecture as a Poetic Act in Ciudad Abierta
- 307 Walter Segal's Recipe for Self-Builders
- 311 Towards Urban Ecology
- 313 Light Forms of Dwelling in Drop City
- 314 Building the Arcological City
- 317 Ecoscores at The Sea Ranch
- 323 Embracing Consumer Culture and Technology
- 323 Urbanity as Event in the Instant City
- 326 A Continuous Monument for Global Urbanization
- 330 Homogeneity and Technology in the No-Stop City
- 333 The Critical Role of Countercultural Experiments

337 8: Finding Meaning in the Postmodern City

- 343 Architecture and Territory
- 346 History and Typology
- 347 The Life and History of the Urban Tissue
- 350 Collective Memory and Urban Artefacts
- 354 The Grossform and the City
- 361 The Reconstruction of the European City
- 369 Old Urban Codes for a New Urbanism
- 371 Learning from Popular Culture
- 375 From Manhattanism to Interior Urbanism
- 379 Collage City and Patchwork Urbanity
- 381 Whose History? Whose Context? Whose Popular Culture?

385 9: Open-Ended Strategies for Imploding Cities

- 390 Urban Design as Projet Urbain
- 401 Infrastructural Urbanism
- 406 Landscape Urbanism
- 419 Weak Urbanization for a Liquid Modernity
- 420 Between Process and Project

424 Coda

- 425 Untold Histories
- 425 A Global History?
- 426 History or His Story?
- 426 Histoire des Idées or Histoire Réalisée?
- 427 The Making of a Profession?
- 427 Transversal Themes
- 427 Urban Design and the Organization of Urban Functions
- 428 Urban Design and Housing
- 429 Urban Design and Infrastructure, Transport, and Circulation
- 430 Urban Design and Craft Versus Industrial Production
- 430 Urban Design and Nature and Ecology
- 431 Urban Design's Actors and Agencies