

REGULATION ON EUROPEAN CROWDFUNDING SERVICE PROVIDERS FOR BUSINESS

A Commentary

Edited by

EUGENIA MACCHIAVELLO

University of Genoa, Italy

ELGAR COMMENTARIES IN FINANCIAL LAW

Edward Elgar
PUBLISHING

Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA

CONTENTS

Extended contents	ix
List of contributors	xxx
Foreword	xxxv
Diego Valiante
Preface and acknowledgments	xli
List of abbreviations	xliv
Table of cases	liv
Table of legislation	lviii
Table of treaties	lxxvi

PART I THE EUROPEAN CROWDFUNDING REGULATION: PRELIMINARY ASPECTS

1	Introduction to the Crowdfunding Regulation Eugenia Macchiavello	2
2	The context: the crowdfunding market and its recent developments Rotem Shneur	15

PART II THE REGULATION ON EUROPEAN CROWDFUNDING SERVICE PROVIDERS FOR BUSINESS: AN ARTICLE-BY-ARTICLE ANALYSIS

3	The scope of the ECSPR: the difficult compromise between harmonization, client protection and the 'level playing field' (Arts 1–2, 46, 48–9, 51) Eugenia Macchiavello	44
4	The provision of crowdfunding services under the ECSPR (Art 3) Sebastiaan Niels Hooghiemstra	68
5	Legal issues in the obligations for an effective and prudent management of crowdfunding service providers (Art 4) Federico Ferretti and Francesca Mattassoglio	86
6	Due diligence of project owners (Art 5) Marije Louise	105
7	Individual portfolio management of loans (Art 6) Roberto Ferretti	113
8	Complaints handling (Art 7) Roberto Ferretti	130
9	Intermediation risk and conflicts of interest (Art 8) Diogo Pereira Duarte	136

CONTENTS

10	Outsourcing under the ECSPR (Art 9) Ella van Kranenburg	150
11	The provision of asset safekeeping services and payment services by ECSP and third parties (Art 10) Sebastiaan Niels Hooghiemstra	167
12	Prudential requirements for crowdfunding service providers (Art 11) Marije Louisse	184
13	Authorisation procedure, scope of authorisation and register (Arts 12–14) Tanja Aschenbeck and Lina Engler	197
14	Supervision and reporting obligations of crowdfunding service providers (Arts 15–16) Francesca Chiarelli, Leonardo Droghini and Raffaele D'Ambrosio	229
15	Causes and procedure of authorisation withdrawal (Art 17) Tanja Aschenbeck and Lina Engler	241
16	The EU passporting system for crowdfunding service providers: towards a new type of passport for digital financial services? (Art 18) Vittorio Tortorici	252
17	Investor protection and information to clients (Articles 19–20 and 26) Diogo Pereira Duarte	266
18	Between investor protection and access to crowdfunding: the entry knowledge test and the simulation of the ability to bear loss (Art 21 and Annex II) Joeri De Smet and Veerle Colaert	280
19	Withdrawal rights in crowdfunding transactions: the precontractual reflection period (Art 22) Konstantinos Serdaris	300
20	On the merits of the Key Investment Information Sheet in the ECSPR (Arts 23–24 and Annex I) Karsten Wenzlaff, Ana Odorović, Tobias Riehmüller and Patrick Wambold	310
21	Secondary markets for crowdfunding: bulletin boards (Art 25) Matteo Gargantini	350
22	The new European rules on advertising crowdfunding campaigns: between proportionality and customer protection (Arts 27–28) Tommaso Martini Varvesi and Vittorio Tortorici	367
23	Competent authorities: their power and their coordination (Arts 29–30 and 33) Anna Maria Agresti	383
24	From cooperation to coercion: the relationships between competent authorities under Articles 31, 34 and 37 ECSPR (Arts 31, 34, 37) Nathan de Arriba-Sellier	391
25	ESMA and NCAs: cooperation in supervision (Art 32) Giuseppe Pala, Marco Lamandini and Raffaele D'Ambrosio	409
26	Balancing confidentiality and transparency: the ECSPR professional secrecy standard in light of cross-sectoral EU financial regulation and ECJ case law (Art 35) Nikolai Badenhoop	419

CONTENTS

27	The GDPR and the data processing of the competent authorities in performing their duties under the ECSPR (Art 36) Federico Ferretti	434
28	Complaint handling: the role of competent authorities (Art 38) Anna Maria Agresti	451
29	Ex post enforcement of the EU crowdfunding regime: administrative sanctions and measures (Arts 39–43) Konstantinos Serdaris	455
30	The delegation of powers to the European Commission within the crowdfunding legal framework (Art 44) Federico Riganti	474
31	The Commission's interim report and prospective adaptations of the ECSPR (Art 45) Eugenia Macchiavello	482
32	The protection regime of the Whistleblower Directive (Arts 47 and 50) Ghazale Mandegarian-Fricke	497

PART III A FOCUS ON SPECIAL ISSUES WITHOUT ANSWER IN THE ECSPR

33	The silence of the ECSPR on tax law – reduction of hurdles in the distant future? Ulrike Bär	514
34	Crowdfunding in the EU: private international law issues by design Ivana Kunda	529
35	Crowdfunding, alternative investment funds and the relationship between the ECSPR and the AIFMD Sebastiaan Niels Hooghiemstra	548
36	Crowdfunding and DLTs: the imperative need for more clarity Filippo Annunziata and Thomaz de Arruda	565
37	Crowdfunding platforms, competition law and platform sector regulation Carmen Estevan de Quesada	578
38	Crowdfunding and consumer credit protection in the EU Antonella Sciarone Alibrandi and Edoardo Grossule	591
39	Invoice trading and regulation: the case of Italy Umberto Piattelli and Sofia Caruso	607
40	Beyond the ECSPR and financial return: the Regulation of donation and reward-based crowdfunding in the EU Eugenia Macchiavello and Chiara Valenti	619
41	Crowdlending and crowdinvesting in Europe: a comparative analysis between the UK and EU regulatory frameworks Francesco De Pascalis	646

CONTENTS

PART IV THE IMPACT OF THE ECSPR ON THE CROWDFUNDING LEGAL FRAMEWORK IN SELECTED COUNTRIES

42	Crowdfunding in France after the adoption of the ECSPR Jean-Marc Moulin	664
43	The crowdfunding regulation in Germany – on the path to self-isolation? Karsten Wenzlaff and Ana Odorović	673
44	The impact of the ECSPR on the crowdfunding legal framework in Italy Umberto Piattelli and Sofia Caruso	694
45	Where the ECSPR pinches the Dutch shoe: some brain teasers from a Dutch law perspective Anne Hakvoort	711
46	The Portuguese crowdfunding regime and the impact of the ECSPR Diogo Pereira Duarte and Joana da Costa Lopes	729
47	A comparative analysis of Spanish crowdfunding regulation and the ECSPR Matilde Cuenca Casas and Segismundo Álvarez Royo-Villanova	751
48	The regulation of crowdfunding in the Nordic countries Elif Härkönen, Thomas Neumann and Cecilie Højvang Christensen	765
49	ECSPR Implementation in the Baltics Nikita Divissenko	784
50	ECSPR versus the United States crowdfunding regime Elif Härkönen	796
51	Conclusions about the ECSPR and its harmonization force: a brief summary of the objectives achieved and the remaining ‘grey’ areas from a comparative law perspective Eugenia Macchiavello	808
	Annex: The evolution of the ECSPR text – overview of the main revisions in trilateral negotiations Eugenia Macchiavello	822
	Index	825

EXTENDED CONTENTS

List of contributors	xxx
Foreword	xxxv
Preface and acknowledgments	xli
List of abbreviations	xliv
Table of cases	liv
Table of legislation	lviii
Table of treaties	lxxvi

PART I THE EUROPEAN CROWDFUNDING REGULATION: PRELIMINARY ASPECTS

1 INTRODUCTION TO THE CROWDFUNDING REGULATION
A. THE CROWDFUNDING UNIVERSE: OVERVIEW AND BACKGROUND	1.01
1. Definitions and terminology	1.01
B. MAIN LEGAL ISSUES SURROUNDING CROWDFUNDING	1.05
1. Financial-return crowdfunding activities and national regulatory approaches	1.05
2. Crowdfunding and the EU: the legislative process of the ECSPR within the actions for the Capital Markets Union, Digital Finance and SME Strategy	1.07
(a) Interests at stake and regulatory concerns	1.07
(b) The ECSPR and its context: related legislative actions and recent influencing factors	1.13
(c) To act or not to act? The legislative process of the ECSPR and its outcome	1.19
C. THE OBJECTIVE AND STRUCTURE OF THIS COMMENTARY	1.21
2 THE CONTEXT: THE CROWDFUNDING MARKET AND ITS RECENT DEVELOPMENTS
A. INTRODUCTION: THE EMERGENCE OF THE EUROPEAN CROWDFUNDING INDUSTRY	2.01
B. FACTS AND FIGURES	2.12
1. European crowdfunding in a global context	2.13
2. European market development by model	2.17
C. REGIONAL SIMILARITIES AND DIFFERENCES WITHIN EUROPE	2.21
1. Regional growth trajectories	2.22
2. Regional model compositions	2.26
D. MARKET TRENDS	2.32
1. SME funding	2.32
2. Collaboration with traditional financial institutions and ‘institutionalization’	2.36
3. Internationalization	2.41
4. Industry’s perception of regulation	2.46
E. CONCLUSIONS	2.51

PART II THE REGULATION ON EUROPEAN CROWDFUNDING SERVICE PROVIDERS FOR BUSINESS: AN ARTICLE-BY-ARTICLE ANALYSIS

3 THE SCOPE OF THE ECSPR: THE DIFFICULT COMPROMISE BETWEEN HARMONIZATION, CLIENT PROTECTION AND THE 'LEVEL PLAYING FIELD' (ARTS 1–2, 46, 48–9, 51)
A. A NEW MANDATORY REGIME FOR CROWDFUNDING SERVICE PROVIDERS	3.01
1. From optional to mandatory regime: entry into force, transitional period, national regimes and competent authorities	3.01
2. The parties involved (definitions)	3.09
(a) Brief preamble on 'platform-based' contractual relationships: consumer law acquis, DSA and fairness on online platforms	3.09
(b) Crowdfunding service provider	3.13
(c) Clients	3.15
(i) Project owners	3.18
(ii) Investors and different categories	3.20
B. CROWDFUNDING OFFER AND ITS SIZE	3.23
C. SERVICES AND PRODUCTS COVERED	3.29
1. Identification of the 'core' crowdfunding services. Financial-return crowdfunding only	3.29
2. In particular, investment-based services and products	3.31
(a) Reception and transmission of orders and placing without guarantee	3.31
(b) Transferable securities and admitted instruments	3.36
3. Lending-related services, in particular	3.43
(a) Facilitation of granting of loans	3.43
(b) The notion of loan and consequent exclusions	3.44
4. Some specifications: additional, more complex, services and exclusions of other reserved activities	3.47
(a) Dilution of the concept of crowdfunding services or ancillary services?	3.47
(b) Additional services and prohibited activities	3.53
4 THE PROVISION OF CROWDFUNDING SERVICES UNDER THE ECSPR (ART 3)
A. LEGAL PERSONS THAT ARE 'ESTABLISHED IN THE UNION'	4.01
1. 'Legal persons'	4.01
2. 'Established in the Union'	4.04
B. CONDUCT OF BUSINESS REQUIREMENTS	4.06
C. RULES ON ECSPs REMUNERATION & INDUCEMENTS	4.08
D. 'INVESTMENT PROPOSALS' VERSUS 'INDIVIDUAL PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT (OF LOANS)'	4.11
1. Investment proposal or investment advice?	4.12
2. Individual portfolio management (of loans)	4.14
E. RULES ON THE USE OF SPVs	4.18
1. Restrictions on the use of SPVs under the ECSPR	4.18
2. Lack of clarity regarding 'SPVs' under the ECSPR	4.24
(a) Indivisible assets	4.25
(b) Illiquid assets	4.30
3. A comparison with 'crowdfunding vehicle' regulation in the United States	4.36
(a) Background	4.36
(b) Conditions crowdfunding vehicles	4.38
(c) Conclusion	4.40
4. SPVs under the ECSPR and other European financial laws	4.41
(a) The AIFMD's 'SSPE' definition	4.42
(b) PRIIPSR	4.43
(c) STSR	4.45

5	LEGAL ISSUES IN THE OBLIGATIONS FOR AN EFFECTIVE AND PRUDENT MANAGEMENT OF CROWDFUNDING SERVICE PROVIDERS (ART 4)
	A. INTRODUCTION	5.01
	B. ORGANIZATIONAL RISKS OF CROWDFUNDING (AGENCY COSTS; CONFLICT OF INTEREST). SPECIAL ISSUES RELATED TO PRICING, AND CREDIT SCORING	5.04
	1. Organisational requirements: general duties and the importance of financial intermediaries' internal governance	5.04
	2. Specific requirements for lending-based crowdfunding platforms	5.08
	C. RESPONSE IN THE ECSPR TO MANAGEMENT OF INVESTORS' CREDIT RISK BY PLATFORMS	5.09
	D. CREDIT RISK ASSESSMENT AND CREDIT SCORING: OVERVIEW OF THE THEORETICAL BACKGROUND	5.14
	E. THE EBA'S DRAFT REGULATORY TECHNICAL STANDARDS	5.22
	F. CREDIT RISK OR CREDITWORTHINESS ASSESSMENT?	5.34
	G. CREDIT SCORING AND DATA PROTECTION	5.44
	H. CONCLUSIONS	5.63
6	DUE DILIGENCE OF PROJECT OWNERS (ART 5)
	A. THE DUE DILIGENCE REQUIREMENT	6.01
	1. Background and development of legal requirement	6.01
	2. Scope of due diligence requirement	6.04
	3. Context of due diligence requirement	6.06
	4. Financial due diligence requirements	6.09
	B. HOW TO PERFORM IT?	6.11
	1. Methods	6.11
	2. Timing and periodicity	6.13
	3. Outcome of due diligence	6.15
	C. CONCURRENCE WITH REQUIREMENTS UNDER AML IV DIRECTIVE	6.16
7	INDIVIDUAL PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT OF LOANS (ART 6)
	A. BACKGROUND	7.01
	1. Nature of the service and market practice	7.01
	2. Legislative process	7.03
	B. SCOPE OF APPLICATION	7.05
	1. Definition of the service and notion of 'loan'	7.05
	2. Distinction from banking and individual and collective asset management	7.09
	C. NATURE, OBJECT, FORM AND RECORDING OF THE MANDATE OF THE INVESTOR	7.19
	D. REQUIREMENTS TO BE MET AND RULES OF CONDUCT TO BE COMPLIED WITH BY SERVICE PROVIDERS	7.27
	1. Internal governance and organisational requirements	7.29
	2. Pre-contractual information requirements	7.34
	3. Reporting and disclosure obligations	7.42
	4. Document retention requirements	7.48
8	COMPLAINTS HANDLING (ART 7)
	A. COMPLAINTS HANDLING REQUIREMENTS PROVIDED BY THE ECSPR	8.01
	1. Scope of application and legal nature of the provisions	8.01
	2. Organisational requirements	8.05
	3. Requirements relating to complaints handling	8.08
	B. FURTHER PROVISIONS THAT MAY APPLY TO COMPLAINTS HANDLING IN CASE CSPs ENGAGE IN OTHER ACTIVITIES	8.11

EXTENDED CONTENTS

9	INTERMEDIATION RISK AND CONFLICTS OF INTEREST (ART 8)
A.	A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE LEGISLATIVE PROCEDURE	9.01
B.	RELEVANT RECITALS AND CLOSELY RELATED PROVISIONS	9.05
C.	LEGAL BACKGROUND	9.12
1.	Conflicts of interest in the financial sector	9.12
D.	ANALYSIS OF ARTICLE 8 ECSPR	9.19
1.	Rationale and policy underpinnings	9.19
2.	Participation in offers	9.26
3.	Prohibitions to related persons	9.29
4.	Internal rules and organizational measures	9.34
5.	Types of conflicts of interest and appropriate steps	9.43
6.	Disclosure requirements	9.50
E.	MARKET PRACTICES ON CONFLICTS OF INTEREST	9.54
10	OUTSOURCING UNDER THE ECSPR (ART 9)
A.	INTRODUCTION	10.01
B.	OUTSOURCING AS PER THE ECSPR	10.02
1.	Concept of outsourcing	10.02
2.	Concept of outsourcing under the ECSPR	10.05
3.	IOSCO Principles	10.09
4.	Outsourcing from the perspective of MiFID II	10.15
C.	OUTSOURCING ACTIVITIES BY CSFS	10.21
1.	General	10.21
2.	Outsourcing of payment services	10.22
3.	Outsourcing of asset safekeeping services	10.26
4.	Information and communication technology (ICT)/cloud outsourcing	10.28
5.	Marketing communications	10.35
D.	OUTSOURCING IN THE CONTEXT OF OPERATIONAL RISK	10.36
1.	General	10.36
2.	Licence application	10.38
3.	Outsourcing policy	10.42
4.	Outsourcing contract	10.45
5.	Sub-outsourcing in EBA Guidelines and ESMA Guidelines	10.49
E.	LIABILITY ISSUES IN OUTSOURCING ARRANGEMENTS	10.54
F.	POWERS OF COMPETENT AUTHORITIES	10.57
11	THE PROVISION OF ASSET SAFEKEEPING SERVICES AND PAYMENT SERVICES BY ECSP AND THIRD PARTIES (ART 10)
A.	INTRODUCTION	11.01
B.	TYPES OF SERVICES	11.02
1.	Client asset safekeeping services	11.02
(a)	Who can provide safekeeping of assets and identification of types of services?	11.02
(b)	'Crypto-assets that can be held in custody'?	11.08
2.	Holding of funds	11.11
(a)	Particular risks of crowdfunding campaigns and consequent restriction on ECSPs' activities	11.11
(b)	Comparison with MiFID II	11.14
3.	The provision of payment services	11.15
C.	PAYMENT SERVICES AND CROWDFUNDING	11.16
1.	The pre-ECSPR era (I): PSD(2) licence as a 'crowdfunding licence'?	11.16
2.	The pre-ECSPR era (II): PSD(2) and crowdfunding – a non-level playing field	11.18
(a)	PSD – Authorization versus registration as 'payment service provider'	11.24
(b)	The ancillary service exemption	11.26
(c)	The commercial agent & technical service provider exemption	11.29

(d) Agents under PSD 1&2	11.31
(e) E-money institutions under EMD	11.33
3. The provision of payment services in the post-ECSPR era	11.35
(a) Main aspects	11.35
(b) Rules on money laundering and terrorist financing under the ECSPR	11.37
(c) EBA guidance: AML risk assessment & measures taken by ECSPs	11.41
D. DISCLOSURE REGIME	11.45
12 PRUDENTIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR CROWDFUNDING SERVICE PROVIDERS (ART 11)
A. THE PRUDENTIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR CROWDFUNDING SERVICE PROVIDERS	12.01
1. Background and development of prudential requirements	12.01
2. Prudential requirements	12.05
3. Fixed overheads	12.09
4. Own funds	12.12
5. Insurance policy	12.13
6. Combination	12.15
7. Review	12.16
B. CONCURRING CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS	12.18
1. Concurrence with capital requirements under CRR, IFR, PSD2 or EMI Directive	12.18
2. Comparison with capital requirements under CRR, IFR, PSD2 and EMI Directive	12.23
C. NON-COMPLIANCE WITH PRUDENTIAL REQUIREMENTS	12.24
13 AUTHORISATION PROCEDURE, SCOPE OF AUTHORISATION AND REGISTER (ARTS 12–14)
A. GENERAL	13.001
1. Introduction of a European authorisation for crowdfunding services providers (hereinafter, 'CSPs')	13.001
2. Structural comparison of ECSPR to other European regulatory frameworks	13.006
(a) ECSPR is linked to specific services	13.006
(b) Linkage and differences to MiFID II and PSD 2	13.007
B. AUTHORISATION AS CSP: ARTICLE 12	13.010
1. Who to apply – addressee of authorisation	13.010
(a) CSP as addressee	13.010
(i) General	13.010
(ii) National crowdfunding services	13.011
(iii) Requirements for cross-border crowdfunding services (EU-passporting) (Art 12(12))	13.014
(b) Crowdfunding services outside the scope of the ECSPR	13.017
2. Application requirements (Art 12)	13.022
(a) Where to apply – national authority (Art 12(1))	13.022
(i) Contact point of national authority	13.024
(ii) Involvement of ESMA (Art 12(9))	13.027
(iii) Involvement of the national authority of another Member State (Art 12(7))	13.031
(b) How to apply – content of the application letter (Art 12(2))	13.035
(i) Required information (Art 12(2)(a)–(r))	13.037
(ii) Management requirements (Art 12(3))	13.100
(iii) Privileges for authorised companies (Art 12 (13), (14) and (15))	13.107
(iv) Fees	13.111
3. Measures of local authority/timing	13.112
(a) Application procedure	13.112
(i) Assessment of completeness (Art 12(4)(5) and (6))	13.112
(ii) Assessment of content (Art 12(8) sentence 1, (10))	13.115
(b) Causes for rejection (Art 12(8) sentence 3)	13.117
(c) Decision on the granting or refusal of an authorisation (Art 12(8) sentence 1)	13.119

EXTENDED CONTENTS

C.	SCOPE OF AUTHORISATION: ARTICLE 13	13.121
1.	Crowdfunding services as specified in the authorisation (Art 13(1))	13.121
2.	Extending business to additional crowdfunding services (Art 13(2))	13.122
(a)	Request for extension	13.122
(b)	Complementing and updating information	13.124
(c)	Procedure of extension	13.125
(d)	Fees for extension	13.126
D.	REGISTER OF CSPS: ARTICLE 14	13.127
1.	ESMA register (Art 14(1))	13.127
2.	Data and publishing of withdrawal of authorisation (Art 14(2) and (3))	13.129
(a)	Data (14(2)(a)–(g))	13.129
(b)	Publishing of withdrawal of authorisation (Art 14(3))	13.130
14	SUPERVISION AND REPORTING OBLIGATIONS OF CROWDFUNDING SERVICE PROVIDERS (ARTS 15–16)
A.	INTRODUCTION	14.01
B.	COMPETENT AUTHORITIES: THE COMMISSION PROPOSAL	14.02
C.	SUPERVISION BY THE COMPETENT AUTHORITIES	14.07
1.	The NCAs' supervision under Article 15	14.07
2.	Other relevant aspects about supervision	14.11
D.	REPORTING BY CROWDFUNDING SERVICE PROVIDERS	14.14
15	CAUSES AND PROCEDURE OF AUTHORISATION WITHDRAWAL (ART 17)
A.	GENERAL	15.01
B.	CAUSES OF WITHDRAWAL	15.03
1.	Introduction	15.03
2.	Causes linked to authorisation as crowdfunding service provider (Art 17(1) sentence 1)	15.06
(a)	No use within 18 months after authorisation (letter a)	15.06
(b)	Explicit renunciation (letter b)	15.12
(c)	No crowdfunding services for nine successive months and no involvement in administration of existing contracts (letter c)	15.16
(d)	Authorisation received by irregular means, false statements (letter d)	15.20
(e)	Crowdfunding service provider no longer meets requirements for authorisation (letter e)	15.23
(f)	Serious violation of ECSPR (letter f)	15.25
3.	Causes not linked to authorisation as crowdfunding service provider (Art 17(1) sentence 2)	15.27
(a)	Acting as PSD2 payment service provider and violations of national law implementing AMLD 4 (letter a)	15.27
(b)	Loss of authorisation as PSD2 payment services provider or MIFID II investment services provider (letter b)	15.30
C.	PROCESS OF WITHDRAWAL	15.34
1.	Withdrawal by national authority	15.34
(a)	Exercise of discretion	15.36
(b)	No time limit for withdrawal	15.37
2.	Involvement of authorities from other Member States (Art 17(3) ECSPR)	15.39
(a)	Subsidiary of crowdfunding service provider authorised in another Member State (letter a)	15.40
(b)	Subsidiary of the parent undertaking of a crowdfunding service provider authorised in another Member State (letter b)	15.41
(c)	Joint control of crowdfunding service provider authorised in another Member State (letter c)	15.42
D.	CONSEQUENCES OF WITHDRAWAL	15.43
1.	Next steps after withdrawal	15.43
2.	Notification of withdrawal to ESMA and affected authorities from other Member States (Art 17(2) sentence 1)	15.45

3.	Entry of withdrawal in the ESMA register (Art 17(2) sentence 2)	15.46
4.	Legal defence	15.47
16	THE EU PASSPORTING SYSTEM FOR CROWDFUNDING SERVICE PROVIDERS: TOWARDS A NEW TYPE OF PASSPORT FOR DIGITAL FINANCIAL SERVICES? (ART 18)
A.	PASSPORTING OF CROWDFUNDING SERVICES IN THE UNION	16.01
1.	The importance of passporting for the development of a European single market for crowdfunding services	16.01
2.	Definition of 'cross-border' for crowdfunding services	16.04
3.	Right of establishment or freedom to provide services? Towards a new passporting system for digital financial services	16.11
B.	PASSPORTING MECHANISMS AND PROCEDURE: SINGLE POINT OF ENTRY, NOTIFICATION AND INFORMATION TO BE TRANSFERRED, TIMING FOR OPERATIONS	16.19
C.	COMPARISON WITH OTHER REGIMES AND ASSESSMENT	16.29
17	INVESTOR PROTECTION AND INFORMATION TO CLIENTS (ARTICLES 19–20 AND 26)
A.	A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE LEGISLATIVE PROCEDURE	17.01
B.	RELEVANT RECITALS AND CLOSELY RELATED PROVISIONS	17.08
C.	LEGAL BACKGROUND	17.12
1.	MiFID II and other information disclosure instruments	17.12
D.	ANALYSIS OF ARTICLES 19, 20 AND 26 ECSPR	17.16
1.	Rationale and policy underpinnings	17.16
2.	Information requirements	17.24
(a)	Information about the costs and charges	17.24
(b)	Information on financial risks of the investments	17.26
(c)	Information on the nature and risks associated with crowdfunding	17.29
(d)	Information on deposit guarantee and investor compensation schemes	17.30
(e)	Information about crowdfunding project selection	17.31
(f)	Information on credit score, loan valuation and pricing	17.32
(g)	Information about the reflection period	17.35
3.	Form of information	17.36
4.	Timing	17.40
5.	Default rate disclosure	17.42
(a)	Default rates of crowdfunding projects	17.42
(b)	Expected and actual default rates	17.46
(c)	Target rate and actual return	17.48
6.	Form and timing of default rate disclosures	17.49
7.	Right of access to records	17.51
(a)	Scope of the right of access to records	17.51
(b)	Relation to the provisions on information	17.52
(c)	Form of the right of access to records	17.53
18	BETWEEN INVESTOR PROTECTION AND ACCESS TO CROWDFUNDING: THE ENTRY KNOWLEDGE TEST AND THE SIMULATION OF THE ABILITY TO BEAR LOSS (ART 21 AND ANNEX II)
A.	INTRODUCTION	18.01
B.	SCOPE OF PROTECTION	18.05
1.	Sophisticated versus non-sophisticated investors	18.05
2.	Comparison with other investor protection regimes	18.09
3.	Critical appraisal	18.14

EXTENDED CONTENTS

C.	ENTRY KNOWLEDGE TEST	18.17
1.	Level 1 and 2 requirements	18.17
(a)	In general	18.17
(b)	Information to be collected	18.18
(c)	Biennial review	18.25
(d)	Risk warning	18.26
2.	Comparison with other investor protection regimes	18.27
3.	Critical appraisal	18.34
D.	SIMULATION OF ABILITY TO BEAR LOSS	18.38
1.	Level 1 and 2 requirements	18.38
(a)	In general	18.38
(b)	Calculation of net worth	18.39
(c)	Review and consequence	18.41
2.	Comparison with other investor protection regimes	18.43
3.	Critical appraisal	18.47
E.	THRESHOLD AGAINST OVEREXPOSURE	18.50
1.	Level 1 requirements	18.50
2.	Comparison with other investor protection regimes	18.53
3.	Critical appraisal	18.56
F.	CONCLUSION	18.61
19	WITHDRAWAL RIGHTS IN CROWDFUNDING TRANSACTIONS: THE PRECONTRACTUAL REFLECTION PERIOD (ART 22)
A.	INTRODUCTION	19.01
B.	THE PROBLEMATIC ISSUE OF WITHDRAWAL RIGHTS IN CROWDFUNDING INVESTMENTS	19.03
1.	The particular features of crowdfunding offers	19.03
2.	Regulatory approaches in selected Member States	19.05
3.	Trilogue negotiations on the issue	19.06
C.	THE RIGHT TO WITHDRAW UNDER THE ECSPP	19.08
1.	Scope of application	19.08
2.	Exercising the withdrawal right – time limits and formalities	19.11
3.	The obligations of crowdfunding services providers	19.13
D.	CONCLUSION	19.17
20	ON THE MERITS OF THE KEY INVESTMENT INFORMATION SHEET IN THE ECSPP (ARTS 23–24 AND ANNEX I)
A.	INTRODUCTION	20.001
B.	FUNCTIONS OF INFORMATION DISCLOSURE IN FINANCIAL MARKETS	20.008
C.	THE RATIONALE FOR MANDATORY DISCLOSURE AND ITS LIMITATIONS IN THE CROWDFUNDING CONTEXT	20.015
D.	THE INTERNAL STRUCTURE OF ARTICLES 23 AND 24 IN THE CONTEXT OF THE ECSPP'S DEVELOPMENT	20.029
E.	DISCLOSURE OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE PROSPECTUS REGULATION, PRIIPS REGULATION AND ECSPP: GENERAL PRINCIPLES AND SYSTEMATIC COMPARISON	20.056
1.	Prospectus Regulation	20.058
2.	PRIIPs Regulation	20.063
3.	ECSPP	20.067
F.	DIVERGENT LIABILITY REGIMES AS A CHALLENGE TO HARMONISATION	20.073
G.	STRUCTURE, REQUIREMENTS AND CONTENTS OF THE KIIS	20.083
1.	General	20.084
(a)	Responsibility for drafting the KIIS	20.086
(i)	Allocation of duties between CSP and project owner for compiling the KIIS	20.086
(ii)	The CSP's duty to establish appropriate procedures to verify the completeness, accuracy and clarity of the information	20.089

	(b) Language of the KIIS	20.094
	(c) Role of the national competent authorities	20.100
2.	KIIS according to Article 23 ECSPR	20.102
	(a) Part A: Information about the project owner(s) and the crowdfunding project	20.104
	(b) Part B: Main features of the crowdfunding process and, as applicable, conditions for the capital raising or funds borrowing	20.111
	(c) Part C: Risk factors	20.115
	(d) Part D: Information related to the offer of transferable securities and admitted instruments for crowdfunding purposes	20.119
	(e) Part E: Information on special purpose vehicles (SPV)	20.124
	(f) Part F: Investor rights	20.125
	(g) Part G: Disclosures related to loans	20.130
	(h) Part H: Fees, information, and legal redress	20.135
3.	KIIS at platform level according to Article 24 ECSPR	20.138
H.	FINAL ASSESSMENT	20.143
21	SECONDARY MARKETS FOR CROWDFUNDING: BULLETIN BOARDS (ART 25)
	A. CROWDFUNDING AND SECONDARY MARKET LIQUIDITY	21.01
	1. Bulletin boards as liquidity facilitators and the ECSPR	21.01
	2. Some models from the pre-ECSPR practice	21.09
	B. PARTICIPANTS ADMITTED TO BULLETIN BOARDS AND RISKS INVOLVED	21.14
	1. Notion of clients and implications: investors	21.14
	2. Project owners and CSPs	21.17
	C. ASSETS ADMITTED TO BULLETIN BOARDS	21.20
	D. THE FUNCTIONING OF BULLETIN BOARDS	21.25
	1. Bulletin boards as direct search markets: transaction costs and asymmetric information	21.25
	2. Market microstructure	21.31
	3. Price determination and market integrity	21.38
	4. Settlement	21.42
22	THE NEW EUROPEAN RULES ON ADVERTISING CROWDFUNDING CAMPAIGNS: BETWEEN PROPORTIONALITY AND CUSTOMER PROTECTION (ARTS 27–28)
	A. DEFINITION AND ATTRIBUTES OF MARKETING COMMUNICATIONS	22.01
	1. The four attributes of the notion of marketing communication in the ECSPR	22.01
	2. Application of the fair, clear and not misleading rule to CSPs' marketing communications	22.10
	B. THE IMPACT OF THE ECSPR ON THE ADVERTISEMENT FOR INDIVIDUAL CROWDFUNDING PROJECTS/OFFERS THROUGH THE PLATFORM	22.20
	C. THE LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS IN MARKETING COMMUNICATIONS: FINDING A BALANCE BETWEEN INVESTOR PROTECTION AND THE STREAMLINE OF CROSS-BORDER OFFERINGS	22.27
	D. 'TO EACH HIS OWN': THE ALLOCATION OF ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES ON MARKETING COMMUNICATIONS BETWEEN NATIONAL COMPETENT AUTHORITIES AND THE ESMA	22.34
	1. The supervisory framework of marketing communications in the ECSPR	22.34
	2. Comparing the ECSPR's approach to other European financial legislations: a new approach towards national marketing frameworks?	22.40
	E. THE PUBLICATION OF NATIONAL PROVISIONS CONCERNING MARKETING REQUIREMENTS: RECONSTRUCTING THE PUZZLE OF NATIONAL MARKETING COMMUNICATION RULES	22.42
23	COMPETENT AUTHORITIES: THEIR POWER AND THEIR COORDINATION (ARTS 29–30 AND 33)
	A. ARTICLE 29 COMPETENT AUTHORITIES	23.01
	1. Definitions and relation with ESMA	23.01
	B. POWERS OF COMPETENT AUTHORITIES AND COOPERATION WITH OTHER AUTHORITIES	23.07

EXTENDED CONTENTS

1. General aspects of Article 30	23.07
2. Specific powers of the authorities	23.08
24 FROM COOPERATION TO COERCION: THE RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN COMPETENT AUTHORITIES UNDER ARTICLES 31, 34 AND 37 ECSFR (ARTS 31, 34, 37)
A. INTRODUCTION: THE ESSENTIAL CHARACTER OF CROSS-BORDER COOPERATION FOR THE OPERATIONALIZATION OF THE ECSFR REGULATION	24.01
1. The principle of sincere cooperation applied to European financial supervision	24.02
2. The symbiosis between mutual recognition and cooperation	24.04
B. THE OPERATIONALIZATION OF CROSS-BORDER SUPERVISORY COOPERATION	24.05
1. The NCAs' obligations of cooperation under Article 31	24.05
(a) The NCAs' general duty of cooperation and coordination	24.06
(b) The far-reaching obligations of cooperation of NCAs	24.09
(c) Cooperation in investigations and on-site inspections	24.17
(d) The NCAs' ability to refuse to cooperate in 'exceptional circumstances'	24.20
2. The circuit-breaker of Article 37	24.24
(a) The obligation to report infringements	24.25
(b) The obligation to take precautionary measures in case of inaction by the home state NCA	24.27
3. ESMA as a guardian of supervisory cooperation	24.29
(a) Keeping ESMA in the loop: obligations to inform ESMA under Articles 31, 34 and 37	24.30
(b) ESMA as a referee	24.32
(i) ESMA as mediator (Arts 31(5), 37(3) & ESMA Reg)	24.33
(ii) ESMA's power to settle disagreements (Arts 31(5), 37(3) & ESMA Reg)	24.34
C. MEMBER STATES' NOTIFICATION DUTIES UNDER ARTICLE 34	24.36
1. The extent of the Member States' notification duties	24.36
2. The consequences of failing to discharge the notification duties	24.39
25 ESMA AND NCAs: COOPERATION IN SUPERVISION (ART 32)
A. GENERAL FRAMEWORK ON THE COOPERATION BETWEEN NCAs AND ESMA	25.01
B. COOPERATION DUTIES BETWEEN NCAs AND ESMA UNDER ARTICLE 32	25.09
1. Exchange of information	25.09
2. On-site inspections and investigations with cross-border effect.	25.14
C. OTHER COOPERATION DUTIES BETWEEN NCAs AND ESMA UNDER THE ECSFR CROSS REFERENCES	25.17
26 BALANCING CONFIDENTIALITY AND TRANSPARENCY: THE ECSFR PROFESSIONAL SECRECY STANDARD IN LIGHT OF CROSS-SECTORAL EU FINANCIAL REGULATION AND ECJ CASE LAW (ART 35)
A. BACKGROUND	26.01
B. SCOPE OF PROTECTION	26.04
1. ECSFR, Art 35(1) first part	26.04
2. Comparison with other EU financial regulatory legislation	26.06
(a) Limitation to information exchange between authorities (ECSFR) versus encompassing protection (CRD IV, MiFID II, Solvency II, SSM Regulation, SRM Regulation, ESA Regulations)	26.06
(b) Additional standards for information exchange between authorities	26.08
3. ECJ case law to be considered	26.10
(a) Information only confidential if 'not public and adverse disclosure effect' – ECJ in Baumeister (C-15/16)	26.10
(b) Time bar after five years – ECJ in Baumeister (C-15/16)	26.12

C.	EXCEPTIONS	26.13
1.	ECSPR, Art 35(1) second part	26.13
2.	Comparison with other EU financial regulatory legislation	26.15
(a)	Disclosure with consent (ECSPR, SRM Regulation) and disclosure in summary or aggregate form (CRD IV, MiFID II, Solvency II, ESA Regulations, SRM Regulation)	26.15
(b)	Disclosure in legal proceedings (ECSPR, SRM Regulation) versus disclosure in bankruptcy or compulsory winding up and civil or commercial proceedings (CRD IV, MiFID II, Solvency II)	26.17
(c)	Disclosure in cases covered by criminal law (CRD IV, MiFID II, Solvency II, ESA Regulations)	26.19
(d)	Disclosure of stress test outcomes (CRD IV)	26.20
3.	ECJ case law to be considered	26.21
(a)	Exceptions to be interpreted restrictively – ECJ in Altmann (C-140-13)	26.21
(b)	No exception for administrative proceedings under MiFID I – ECJ in Altmann (C-140-13)	26.22
(c)	Disclosure towards future claimant in civil or commercial proceedings – ECJ in Buccioni (C-594/16)	26.23
(d)	Criminal law exception only applicable to national law – ECJ in UBS Europe (C-358/16)	26.24
(e)	Interpreting the ECSPR in light of Altmann , Buccioni and UBS Europe	26.25
(f)	The obligation to state reasons and the disclosure in legal proceedings – ECJ in Commission v Landesbank Baden-Württemberg and SRB (C-584/20 P)	26.28
D.	OBLIGED PERSONS	26.29
1.	ECSPR, Art 35(2) sentence 1	26.29
2.	Comparison with the CRD IV, MiFID II, Solvency II, SSM Regulation, SRM Regulation and ESA Regulations	26.31
E.	LEVEL OF PROTECTION	26.35
1.	ECSPR, Art 35(2) sentence 2	26.35
2.	Comparison with the CRD IV, MiFID II, Solvency II, SRM Regulation and ESA Regulations on the use of confidential information	26.37
F.	OPEN QUESTIONS	26.40
1.	Professional secrecy beyond the exchange between authorities	26.40
2.	Potential conflicts with national professional secrecy provisions	26.41
3.	Consequences of a breach of the professional secrecy standard	26.42
27	THE GDPR AND THE DATA PROCESSING OF THE COMPETENT AUTHORITIES IN PERFORMING THEIR DUTIES UNDER THE ECSPR (ART 36)
A.	INTRODUCTION	27.01
B.	PRINCIPLES AND GENERAL RULES ON LAWFULNESS	27.07
1.	General Principles	27.07
2.	Lawfulness of processing and further processing	27.09
(a)	Consent	27.11
(b)	Processing of special categories of data (sensitive data)	27.23
C.	RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECTS	27.26
1.	Transparency	27.26
2.	Information notices	27.28
3.	Right of access	27.32
4.	Rectification and erasure	27.33
5.	Right to data portability	27.38
6.	Automated decision-making and profiling	27.39
D.	DATA GOVERNANCE OBLIGATIONS	27.43
1.	Data protection by design and by default	27.46
2.	Data Protection Impact Assessments (DPIA)	27.47
3.	Data Protection Officer (DPO)	27.52
E.	PERSONAL DATA BREACHES AND NOTIFICATION	27.57
F.	REMEDIES AND LIABILITIES	27.66
G.	GENERAL APPLICABILITY OF THE GDPR BEYOND ARTICLE 36 ECSPR	27.70

EXTENDED CONTENTS

H.	CONCLUDING REMARKS	27.74
28	COMPLAINT HANDLING: THE ROLE OF COMPETENT AUTHORITIES (ART 38)
A.	THE RELEVANCE OF COMPLAINT HANDLING	28.1
1.	Introduction	28.1
B.	COMPLAINT HANDLING IN THE ECSPR	28.2
1.	General principles in the European Crowdfunding Regulation	28.2
2.	Some Issues Surrounding Complaint Handling	28.6
29	EX POST ENFORCEMENT OF THE EU CROWDFUNDING REGIME: ADMINISTRATIVE SANCTIONS AND MEASURES (ARTS 39–43)
A.	INTRODUCTION	29.01
B.	THE ECSPR SANCTIONING SYSTEM	29.04
1.	Competent authorities and the role of ESMA	29.04
2.	Promoting convergence in national enforcement powers	29.07
(a)	Infringements giving rise to enforcement proceedings	29.08
(b)	Types and range of available sanctions	29.11
3.	The criteria of effectiveness, proportionality and dissuasiveness	29.13
C.	THE EXERCISE OF ENFORCEMENT POWERS BY NCAs	29.18
1.	General principles	29.18
(a)	The determination of administrative penalties and measures	29.18
(b)	Cooperation in enforcement activities	29.20
2.	The right of appeal	29.22
D.	PUBLICATION OF SANCTION DECISIONS AND REPORTING REQUIREMENTS	29.25
1.	Mandatory publication of administrative sanctions	29.25
(a)	Background and rationale	29.25
(b)	Scope and subject matter	29.27
(c)	Exemptions from the publication obligation	29.30
2.	The reporting of sanctions to ESMA	29.31
E.	CONCLUSION	29.33
30	THE DELEGATION OF POWERS TO THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION WITHIN THE CROWDFUNDING LEGAL FRAMEWORK (ART 44)
A.	OVERVIEW OF THE CHAPTER	30.01
B.	THE EXERCISE OF DELEGATION IN GENERAL	30.02
C.	THE DELEGATION OF POWER WITHIN THE ECSPR	30.09
1.	The exercise of delegation in the supervised sectors and comparison with the ECSPR	30.10
2.	Notes on Article 44 of the ECSPR	30.13
3.	The veto power of the Parliament and the Council	30.19
D.	THE PRINCIPLES OF THE INTERINSTITUTIONAL AGREEMENT OF 13 APRIL 2016 ON BETTER LAW-MAKING AS A BENCHMARK FOR THE EXERCISE OF DELEGATION	30.22
31	THE COMMISSION'S INTERIM REPORT AND PROSPECTIVE ADAPTATIONS OF THE ECSPR (ART 45)
A.	OVERVIEW	31.01
B.	MONITORING OF MARKET GROWTH AND INNOVATIONS	31.03
1.	General aspects	31.03
2.	Crowdfunding service providers' market: in particular, transitional period and cross-border market	31.04
3.	Innovations in business models and technology	31.06
(a)	Examples: tokens and new assessment methods	31.07
(b)	Real estate crowdfunding	31.09

4. Maximum size of the offer	31.12
C. LEVEL PLAYING FIELD WITH TRADITIONAL PROVIDERS	31.13
D. BALANCE OF DIFFERENT INTERESTS INVOLVED: FUTURE INCREASE IN PLATFORMS' REQUIREMENTS VERSUS FACILITATIONS	31.17
1. Hypothetical increase in requirements and protections	31.18
2. Negative impact on the market and facilitations	31.22
E. FURTHER HARMONIZATION AND ADJUSTMENTS TO THE SUPERVISORY ARCHITECTURE AND PASSPORT	31.25
F. EXTENSION OF THE ECSPR'S SCOPE TO NEW AREAS	31.31
1. Geographic scope and third countries	31.32
2. Crowdfunding and sustainability	31.33
3. Invoice trading	31.39
32 THE PROTECTION REGIME OF THE WHISTLEBLOWER DIRECTIVE (ARTS 47 AND 50)
A. GENERAL	32.01
1. Applicability of the Whistleblower Directive	32.01
2. Relationship of the Whistleblower Directive and Directive (EU) 2016/943	32.04
B. SCOPE OF THE WHISTLEBLOWER DIRECTIVE	32.05
1. Material scope	32.05
2. Personal scope	32.11
C. CONDITIONS FOR PROTECTION OF REPORTING PERSONS	32.16
1. Good faith	32.17
2. Correct procedure	32.20
3. Anonymous reportings and disclosures	32.23
D. REPORTINGS AND PUBLIC DISCLOSURE	32.25
1. Internal reportings	32.25
(a) Scope	32.26
(b) Internal reporting structures	32.32
(c) Procedure and follow-up	32.38
2. External reportings	32.42
(a) External reporting structures	32.43
(b) Procedure and follow-up	32.45
(c) Relationship to internal reportings	32.48
3. Public disclosure	32.50
E. PROTECTION MEASURES	32.52
1. Prohibition of retaliation	32.53
2. Measures for protection against retaliation	32.59
3. Penalties	32.63
PART III A FOCUS ON SPECIAL ISSUES WITHOUT ANSWER IN THE ECSPR
33 THE SILENCE OF THE ECSPR ON TAX LAW – REDUCTION OF HURDLES IN THE DISTANT FUTURE?
A. INTRODUCTION: THE TAX TREATMENT OF CROWDFUNDING AND THE ECSPR'S SILENCE	33.01
1. The ECSPR is not a set of tax rules. No comprehensive EU competence for tax legislation and national fragmentation	33.01
2. Harmonisation rules currently in force in the tax area	33.09
(a) Value added tax law/VAT Directive	33.09
(b) Tax procedure rules	33.11
B. TAX LAW ISSUES IN CONNECTION WITH THE ECSPR	33.12
1. Material and personal scope of application	33.12
2. Relevant taxes	33.13
(a) Income tax law and foreseeable initiatives	33.13

EXTENDED CONTENTS

(b) Value added tax law	33.30
C. TYPICAL TAX CONFLICTS AND POSSIBLE SOLUTIONS IN CONNECTION WITH CROWDFUNDING	33.44
1. What tax conflicts are foreseeable?	33.44
2. How can tax conflicts be avoided? Are the existing dispute resolution measures sufficient or is there a need for improvement?	33.47
34 CROWDFUNDING IN THE EU: PRIVATE INTERNATIONAL LAW ISSUES BY DESIGN
A. SETTING THE SCENE	34.01
1. Cross-border crowdfunding	34.01
2. Pertinent private international law instruments	34.03
3. Legal relations in crowdfunding	34.04
4. Private international law patterns in crowdfunding	34.06
B. JURISDICTION BY DESIGN	34.07
1. Features of party autonomy in choosing the court	34.08
2. Validity of the jurisdiction agreement	34.10
3. Restrictions on jurisdiction agreements in consumer contracts	34.11
C. APPLICABLE LAW BY DESIGN	34.18
1. Features of party autonomy in choosing applicable law	34.20
2. Validity of the applicable law agreement	34.21
3. General restrictions on party autonomy	34.22
4. Special restrictions on party autonomy	34.25
D. CONCLUSION	34.29
35 CROWDFUNDING, ALTERNATIVE INVESTMENT FUNDS AND THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE ECSPR AND THE AIFMD
A. INTRODUCTION	35.01
B. COLLECTIVE INVESTMENT UNDERTAKINGS IN CROWDFUNDING AND THE ECSPR	35.03
1. Crowdfunding business models involving collective investment undertakings: 'direct' versus 'indirect' investing	35.03
2. Indirect crowdfunding and the ECSPR	35.08
(a) Can an ECSP hold a parallel AIFM licence?	35.09
(b) Crowdfunding through SPVs	35.11
(c) Summing-up	35.14
C. 'INDIRECT' CROWDFUNDING AND APPLICABLE RULES: EUROPEAN INVESTMENT FUND LAWS & CROWDFUNDING	35.16
1. Do 'intermediary vehicles' employed by crowdfunding platforms under the 'indirect model' qualify as AIFs under the AIFMD?	35.20
(a) Collective investment undertaking	35.22
(i) The undertaking does not have a general commercial or industrial purpose as interpreted under the AIFMD	35.23
(ii) The undertaking pools together capital raised from its investors for the purpose of investment with a view to generating a pooled return for those investors	35.24
(iii) The unitholders or shareholders of the undertaking – as a collective group – have no day-to-day discretion or control. The fact that one or more but not all of the aforementioned unitholders or shareholders are granted day-to-day discretion or control should not be taken to show that the undertaking is not a collective investment undertaking	35.27
(b) Defined investment policy	35.29
(c) Exemptions	35.30
(d) Summing-up	35.35
D. 'INDIRECT BUSINESS MODELS' INVOLVING ECSPs, AIFs AND THEIR AIFMs: OPPORTUNITIES UNDER THE ECSPR	35.37
1. Opportunities for private equity & debt AIFs and their AIFMs under the ECSPR	35.38

2.	Business models by ECSPs or AIFs and their AIFMs under the ECSPR	35.44
(a)	AIFs, AIFMs, ECSPs and ECSPR restrictions on the platform level	35.45
(i)	ECSPs as 'co-investment platforms'	35.46
(ii)	ECSPR delegates: AIFMs, banks & investment firms as asset managers or 'investment advisors' under the ECSPR?	35.52
(iii)	ECSP (third-party) co-investment platforms?	35.56
(b)	AIFs, AIFMs, ECSPs and ECSPR restrictions on the crowdfunding project level	35.58
(c)	AIFs, AIFMs, ECSPs and ECSPR restrictions on the 'investor level'	35.61
E.	CONCLUSION	35.65
36	CROWDFUNDING AND DLTs: THE IMPERATIVE NEED FOR MORE CLARITY
A.	INTRODUCTION	36.01
B.	CROWDFUNDING PLATFORMS: DLT APPLICATIONS AND SECONDARY MARKETS FOR SECURITY TOKENS	36.05
1.	DLT: a tool to enhance crowdfunding platforms	36.06
2.	Building secondary markets in crowdfunding via DLT infrastructures	36.13
C.	CROWDFUNDING PRODUCTS: EQUITY CROWDFUNDING AND SECURITY TOKEN OFFERINGS	36.18
1.	Understanding the scope of the ECSPR with respect to tokens	36.22
2.	First possible interpretation: STOs excluded from the ECSPR	36.31
3.	Second possible interpretation: STOs included in the ECSPR	36.34
D.	FINAL REMARKS	36.41
37	CROWDFUNDING PLATFORMS, COMPETITION LAW AND PLATFORM SECTOR REGULATION
A.	DIGITAL PLATFORMS AND MARKET POWER	37.01
1.	The rise of the digital economy	37.01
2.	Market power of digital platforms	37.03
3.	Legal answers	37.05
B.	PLATFORM SECTOR REGULATION	37.08
1.	Regulation (EU) 2019/1150	37.08
2.	Digital Markets Act (DMA)	37.14
C.	COMPETITION LAW	37.18
1.	Delimitation: market power of crowdfunding platforms	37.18
2.	Rules on abuse of economic dependence	37.20
(a)	General background	37.20
(b)	Economic dependence in digital markets	37.22
D.	CONCLUSIONS	37.30
38	CROWDFUNDING AND CONSUMER CREDIT PROTECTION IN THE EU
A.	THE ROLE OF CONSUMERS IN CROWDFUNDING: PRELIMINARY REMARKS	38.01
B.	THE SUBJECTIVE SCOPE OF APPLICATION OF THE CROWDFUNDING REGULATION: THE REASONS FOR THE CHOICE MADE	38.08
C.	THE OBSTACLES TO THE DIRECT APPLICABILITY OF THE CCD TO THE CROWDFUNDING PLATFORMS	38.21
D.	THE CROWDFUNDING REGULATION UNDER THE CCD REVIEW: A FUNCTIONAL APPROACH AND THE DIFFERENT TYPES OF PLATFORMS.	38.34
1.	The Impact of Digitization on the Consumer-credit Protection and the Vacuum Left by ECSPR	38.34
2.	The CCD Review approach based on the different existing platforms business models	38.41
3.	Licensing Duties Imposed on the Platforms and the Assessment of Creditworthiness	38.52
E.	CONCLUSIONS	38.67

EXTENDED CONTENTS

39	INVOICE TRADING AND REGULATION: THE CASE OF ITALY
A.	INVOICE TRADING: MAIN ASPECTS	39.01
1.	Definition of the phenomenon	39.01
2.	Invoice trading: advantages	39.06
3.	Invoice trading market size. Objective of this contribution	39.09
B.	THE REGULATION OF INVOICE TRADING IN ITALY: MAIN LEGAL FRAMEWORK	39.11
1.	Purchase of credit as reserved activities	39.11
2.	Credit brokerage regulation	39.18
C.	COMPARISON WITH OTHER SIMILAR TRANSACTIONS	39.23
1.	Invoice trading: a comparison with lending crowdfunding	39.23
2.	Invoice trading and debts financial products offering	39.28
D.	ECSPR IMPACT ON THE INVOICE TRADING BUSINESS	39.34
1.	Is ECSPR applicable to the invoice trading business?	39.34
2.	ECSPR versus the adoption of a new regulation for invoice trading platforms?	39.49
40	BEYOND THE ECSPR AND FINANCIAL RETURN: THE REGULATION OF DONATION AND REWARD-BASED CROWDFUNDING IN THE EU
A.	INTRODUCTION: NON-FINANCIAL RETURN CROWDFUNDING VERSUS FINANCIAL-RETURN CROWDFUNDING. A LEGAL ANALYSIS OF DONATION AND REWARD CROWDFUNDING IN SELECTED MEMBER STATES	40.01
1.	The other side of the moon: non-financial return crowdfunding and its main features	40.01
2.	Non-financial return crowdfunding and regulation in Europe. Objective of the chapter	40.06
B.	THE DISTINCTION BETWEEN REWARD-BASED CROWDFUNDING AND DONATION-BASED CROWDFUNDING AND SOME INITIAL DEFINITIONS	40.11
C.	THE REGULATION OF REWARD-BASED CROWDFUNDING	40.20
1.	Main legal classifications and relative applicable law	40.20
2.	The Relationship between Backers and Project Owners: Protective Measures Available	40.27
(a)	General contract law	40.27
(b)	Consumer law	40.31
3.	The relationship between the platform and its users	40.39
(a)	Main classification of the contract between the platform and its users	40.39
(b)	Application of consumer law and similar regimes	40.43
D.	THE REGULATION OF DONATION-BASED CROWDFUNDING	40.47
1.	Main legal classifications and framework	40.47
(a)	Donations under civil law and national differences	40.47
(b)	Main regulatory approach: Civil Code and general principles versus special crowdfunding regulation	40.52
2.	The relationship between donors and donees: transparency, accountability and available protective measures	40.57
(a)	General aspects: liberality and protection of donors' expectations versus investor protection	40.57
(b)	Donation crowdfunding campaigns and the centrality of the project	40.60
3.	The regulation of platforms and the relationship between the platform and its users	40.68
(a)	Classification of platform-user relationship based on Civil Codes/general principles and legal implications	40.68
(b)	Jurisdictions with special donation-crowdfunding provisions and platforms' duties towards users	40.72
4.	Additional relevant aspects concerning applicable law	40.75
(a)	Laws in the area of competition and consumer protection	40.75
(b)	Business-to-business intermediation services and Digital Services Act	40.79
E.	FINAL COMMON ASPECTS IN TERMS OF APPLICABLE LAW: FINANCIAL SERVICES	40.81
1.	Payment services	40.81
2.	Anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing	40.86
F.	CONCLUSIONS	40.89

41	CROWDLENDING AND CROWDINVESTING IN EUROPE: A COMPARATIVE ANALYSIS BETWEEN THE UK AND EU REGULATORY FRAMEWORKS
	A. INTRODUCTION	41.01
	B. BREXIT AND THE 'KEY SIMILARITIES' PLEA	41.05
	C. IN SEARCH OF KEY SIMILARITIES	41.10
	1. Terms of comparison	41.15
	(a) Risk management framework	41.16
	(b) Platform governance	41.20
	(c) Marketing communication versus marketing restrictions	41.23
	(d) Wind-down arrangements	41.29
	D. WHAT IS ON THE HORIZON?	41.34
	E. CONCLUSION	41.40
PART IV	THE IMPACT OF THE ECSPR ON THE CROWDFUNDING LEGAL FRAMEWORK IN SELECTED COUNTRIES
42	CROWDFUNDING IN FRANCE AFTER THE ADOPTION OF THE ECSPR
	A. A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE FRENCH REGULATION ON CROWDFUNDING	42.01
	B. THE FRENCH CROWDFUNDING REGIME BEFORE THE ECSPR	42.03
	1. New players	42.04
	2. Monopoly banking derogations	42.07
	3. Prospectus	42.08
	4. New financing tool	42.09
	C. THE REVOLUTION CAUSED BY THE ECSPR	42.10
	1. Introduction and main changes	42.10
	2. Most critical aspects	42.12
	3. Main novelties introduced in the French legal framework for crowdfunding	42.20
	4. Effective transposition of the ECSPR	42.21
	D. CONCLUSIONS	42.29
43	THE CROWDFUNDING REGULATION IN GERMANY – ON THE PATH TO SELF-ISOLATION?
	A. INTRODUCTION	43.01
	B. EVOLUTION OF CROWDFUNDING REGULATION IN GERMANY	43.07
	1. The first phase: emerging within and outside of regulation	43.08
	2. The second phase: the Small Investor Protection Act	43.16
	3. The third phase: new prospectus thresholds	43.21
	4. The fourth phase: ECSPR	43.27
	C. THE CURRENT REGULATION OF CROWDFUNDING IN GERMANY AND THE IMPACT OF THE ECSPR	43.29
	1. Regulation of financial instruments	43.33
	2. Regulation of the issuer	43.43
	3. Regulation of the intermediary	43.53
	4. Regulation of the investor	43.58
	D. THE ECSPR IMPLEMENTATION LAW	43.61
	E. CONCLUSION AND OUTLOOK	43.66

EXTENDED CONTENTS

44 THE IMPACT OF THE ECSPR ON THE CROWDFUNDING LEGAL FRAMEWORK IN ITALY
A. THE ITALIAN EQUITY CROWDFUNDING REGULATION: THE FIRST REGULATION ISSUED IN THE WORLD	44.01
1. History of Italian regulations	44.01
2. Introduction to the Italian regulatory regime	44.11
3. Lending crowdfunding business models before the ECSPR	44.15
4. The Italian issue of two different supervisory authorities	44.21
B. ECSPR IMPACT ON EXISTING REGULATION	44.25
1. Italian regime special provisions	44.25
2. A new regime applicable to both equity and lending crowdfunding platforms and types of permissible activities	44.30
3. Lending crowdfunding and the portfolio management service	44.36
4. Crowdfunding services and rule of conduct	44.40
5. Sophisticated investor rules	44.45
6. The increase of liabilities for CSPs	44.49
7. The new EU licence and its application	44.52
C. MARKET DEVELOPMENTS	44.56
1. Increased regulation	44.56
2. Recognition of licences for lending crowdfunding platforms	44.58
45 WHERE THE ECSPR PINCHES THE DUTCH SHOE: SOME BRAIN TEASERS FROM A DUTCH LAW PERSPECTIVE
A. THE PRIOR DUTCH LEGAL FRAMEWORK	45.01
1. Introduction: history of crowdfunding regulation in the Netherlands and brief overview	45.01
2. Crowdlending	45.04
(a) Prior Dutch regulatory framework applicable to crowdlending CSPs for business loans	45.04
(b) Exempt crowdlending services prior to the ECSPR becoming effective	45.08
(c) Dutch regulatory framework applicable to crowdlending CSPs for consumer loans	45.10
(d) Prior Dutch regulatory framework applicable to project owner attracting a business loan via a CSP from the public	45.12
(e) Other Dutch laws and regulations	45.13
3. Crowdfunding	45.15
(a) Dutch regulatory framework applicable to crowdfunding CSPs	45.15
(b) Dutch regulatory framework applicable to project owner offering securities to the public via a CSP	45.21
(c) Other Dutch laws and regulations	45.23
B. MAIN CHANGES UNDER THE ECSPR	45.24
1. One size fits all	45.24
(a) Crowdlending	45.25
(b) Crowdfunding	45.26
2. Capital requirement	45.31
3. Passport	45.32
4. Involvement in payment flows	45.33
5. Investor protection	45.34
(a) Onboarding of clients	45.35
(b) Investment limit removed	45.40
(c) Pre-contractual reflection period	45.41
(d) Default rate disclosure	45.42
6. KIIS	45.43
7. Individual portfolio management of loans	45.44
8. Trading options for crowdfunding investments	45.48

46	THE PORTUGUESE CROWDFUNDING REGIME AND THE IMPACT OF THE ECSPR
A.	INTRODUCTION TO THE LEGAL FRAMEWORK FOR CROWDFUNDING IN PORTUGAL	46.01
B.	THE PARTIES IN CROWDFUNDING	46.06
	1. Crowdfunding platforms and crowdfunding service providers: definitions, duties and prohibited activities	46.07
	2. Project owners	46.11
	3. Supporters and investors	46.14
C.	DIFFERENT MODELS OF CROWDFUNDING UNDER PORTUGUESE LEGISLATION	46.15
	1. Non-financial return crowdfunding	46.15
	2. Equity and lending crowdfunding	46.16
	(a) General approach: services and products covered	46.16
	(b) Territorial scope	46.34
	(c) Registration and duties of crowdfunding service providers	46.40
	(d) Project owners' duties	46.47
	(e) Crowdfunding offers: special limits	46.49
	(f) Investment limits	46.51
	(g) Supervision	46.54
D.	THE IMPACT OF THE ECSPR IN THE PORTUGUESE CROWDFUNDING REGIME	46.56
	1. Timing	46.56
	2. Scope of the ECSPR and residual space for the Portuguese regime	46.60
	(a) Non-financial return crowdfunding	46.64
	(b) Lending-based and investment-based crowdfunding	46.65
	(c) Third-country firms	46.77
	3. The most relevant changes for CSPs: authorization requirements and procedure, organizational and conduct requirements	46.80
	4. Changes for project owners and investors	46.84
E.	WHAT TO EXPECT? ISSUES STILL TO BE CLARIFIED AND CONCLUSIONS	46.86
47	A COMPARATIVE ANALYSIS OF SPANISH CROWDFUNDING REGULATION AND THE ECSPR
A.	LEGAL FRAMEWORK OF CROWDFUNDING IN SPAIN, PRODUCTS AND SERVICES COVERED	47.01
	1. Introduction	47.01
	2. The LFFE: types of rules	47.02
	3. Products and services covered	47.03
B.	REQUIREMENTS FOR CROWDFUNDING SERVICE PROVIDERS	47.07
	1. Authorization and supervision issues	47.07
	(a) Authorization and registration	47.07
	(b) Prudential requirements	47.08
	(c) Supervisor's functions	47.09
	(d) Cross-border provision of crowdfunding services	47.10
	2. Standards of conduct/conflict of interest regulation	47.11
	3. Permissible activities	47.14
C.	REQUIREMENTS FOR PROJECT OWNERS AND THE PROJECTS	47.17
D.	REQUIREMENTS FOR INVESTORS AND LIMITS TO INVESTMENT	47.22
	1. Types of investors	47.22
	2. Related protective measures	47.32
	3. Assessment of the two investor protection regimes	47.40
E.	SPECIFIC RULES FOR CROWDLENDING	47.43
F.	SPECIFIC RULES FOR EQUITY CROWDFUNDING	47.54
	1. Project owner information	47.54
	2. Project information	47.55
	3. Securities information	47.58
G.	CONCLUSION	47.60

EXTENDED CONTENTS

48	THE REGULATION OF CROWDFUNDING IN THE NORDIC COUNTRIES
A.	CROWDFUNDING IN THE NORDIC COUNTRIES	48.01
1.	Background to the implementation of crowdfunding regulation in the Nordic countries	48.01
B.	THE SCOPE AND IMPLEMENTATION OF THE ECSPR IN THE NORDIC COUNTRIES	48.08
1.	The regulatory landscape in the Nordic Countries and ECSPR	48.08
2.	The activities and instruments included in the ECSPR	48.12
C.	AUTHORIZATION AND SUPERVISION REQUIREMENTS FOR CROWDFUNDING SERVICE PROVIDERS IN THE NORDIC COUNTRIES	48.17
1.	Competent authorities responsible for the functions and duties in the ECSPR	48.17
D.	SANCTIONS APPLICABLE TO CROWDFUNDING SERVICE PROVIDERS IN THE NORDIC COUNTRIES	48.26
1.	Criminal and administrative penalties applicable to crowdfunding in the Nordic countries	48.26
2.	Civil liability rules applicable to crowdfunding in the Nordic countries	48.30
E.	THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE ECSPR AND OTHER LAWS OF IMPORTANCE FOR CROWDFUNDING	48.32
1.	The relationship between the Prospectus Regulation and ECSPR	48.32
2.	The relationship between the ECSPR and other consumer protection regulations	48.38
3.	The relationship between the ECSPR and AML legislation	48.44
F.	CONCLUSION	48.49
49	ECSPR IMPLEMENTATION IN THE BALTICS
A.	INTRODUCTION: CROWDFUNDING IN THE BALTICS	49.01
B.	INCORPORATION OF THE ECSPR IN THE NATIONAL LEGAL FRAMEWORKS	49.04
1.	Estonia	49.05
2.	Latvia	49.06
3.	Lithuania	49.07
C.	NATIONAL SCOPE OF APPLICATION	49.08
D.	AUTHORISATION AND SUPERVISION	49.12
E.	KEY REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS	49.15
1.	Prudential requirements	49.15
2.	Management qualification requirements (fit and proper)	49.19
3.	Requirements for the provision of services	49.22
4.	Requirements for investor protection	49.25
F.	CONCLUSIONS	49.28
50	ECSPR VERSUS THE UNITED STATES CROWDFUNDING REGIME
A.	INTRODUCTION TO THE UNITED STATES CROWDFUNDING LEGISLATION	50.01
B.	REQUIREMENTS ON INTERMEDIARIES IN THE UNITED STATES CROWDFUNDING LEGISLATION	50.08
C.	REQUIREMENTS ON ISSUERS IN THE UNITED STATES CROWDFUNDING LEGISLATION	50.17
D.	SANCTIONS IN THE UNITED STATES CROWDFUNDING LEGISLATION	50.27
E.	CONCLUSION	50.29
51	CONCLUSIONS ABOUT THE ECSPR AND ITS HARMONIZATION FORCE: A BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE OBJECTIVES ACHIEVED AND THE REMAINING 'GREY' AREAS FROM A COMPARATIVE LAW PERSPECTIVE
A.	GENERAL ASPECTS	51.01
B.	SCOPE AND INTERACTION WITH OTHER LAWS	51.07
1.	Crowdfunding products and services covered	51.07
2.	Additional types of permissible activities	51.14
3.	Additional remarks on persistent areas of regulatory fragmentation in terms of scope: national options and national crowdfunding regimes	51.17
4.	In particular, interaction with other regulatory frameworks	51.24
C.	AUTHORIZATION AND SUPERVISION	51.25

EXTENDED CONTENTS

D.	MAIN APPROACH AND CROWDFUNDING SERVICE PROVIDERS' DUTIES	51.31
1.	An (almost) unified regime for lending-based and investment-based crowdfunding	51.31
2.	Main focus on investor protection	51.32
3.	Organizational and prudential requirements	51.39
4.	International regulatory competition and other regimes (UK, US)	51.42
E.	FINAL CONCLUSIONS	51.44
ANNEX: THE EVOLUTION OF THE ECSPR TEXT – OVERVIEW OF THE MAIN REVISIONS IN TRILATERAL NEGOTIATIONS		822
Index		825