

Being a Ukrainian
Architect During Wartime
Essays, Articles, Interviews, and Manifestos

Ievgeniia Gubkina

LHubkina, Jevhenija

6	I. Introduction
15	II. Selected Texts Written After 24 February 2022
	MARCH
16	The Kharkiv that We Have Lost, as Told by an Architectural Researcher
24	Unseen Realities: Let History Be Told by the Victims
28	You May Destroy Me
	APRIL
38	Ukrainian Heritage of Leftist Urbanism Under Russian Threat
58	All War Crimes Must Be Dealt With – Including Those Against Our Architectural Heritage
66	A Leading Ukrainian Urban Historian on Russia's Violent War
72	The Choice Between Culture and Survival Is an Illusion
82	Traumatised Ukrainian Society Needs a New Architecture
	MAY
90	Rebuilding Kharkiv: Ukrainian Architect and Architectural Historian Ievgeniia Gubkina Weighs in on What Is at Stake in Reconstructing Ukraine
100	The Architecture of Late Socialism
114	Socialist Palaces vs. Socialist Clubs

JUNE

126 Heritage Destruction as a Russian Military Tactic

JULY

132 S Is for Socialism

SEPTEMBER

136 The Right to Prosecute: on Russia's War Crimes Against Ukrainian Cultural Heritage

143 III. Selected Texts Written Before 24 February 2022

144 Losing My Religion

156 Burnout Speech

160 Architecture Is not Walls, It Is People